We Are Family

We Are Family . . .

. . . grouped together by a need, supported by shared emotions and memories. Faith was our past, growth is our present, and hope is our future. The dangers we face, the joys we have, and the love we share are bonds stronger than the toughest rope of mightiest chain. Christ is our common link; "I have given them the glory you gave me — the glorious unity of being one, as we are — I in them and you in me, all being perfected into one . . ." We are family and our family is love.

Our school is not perfect, but no family is. For along with love, there is anger and conflicts, not to mention a spirit of competition. Yet while these feelings are there, so also is friendship. Friendship is a flower that grows as we do, and whose beauty outshines the darkest emotions. "Love each other with brotherly affection and take delight in honoring each other." Romans 12:10

1. Students take advantage of the Prayer Room, a special place to get alone with God.
2. Coach Manley and Steve Hoggard discuss strategies for leading the team to victory.

6. Friendship is . . . a helping hand.

Pain brings interaction, and interaction breeds qualities special to a group of caring people. Respect and security binds us together. They add harmony and a sense of belonging. "How wonderful it is, how pleasant, when brothers live in harmony." (Psalms 133:1) Pride loyalty, competition — they draw us in to stand together; they give us strength. Strength in our family gives us strength to face the world.

A Unit Of Individuals

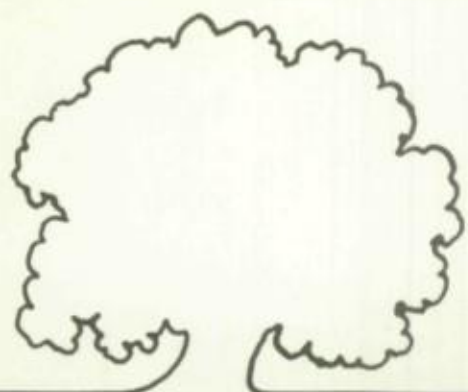

1. Edie Jordan and Leigh White clown around in the library.
2. Miss Doty makes a personal delivery from the Colonel.

Unity — a simple word, yet so rich in describing all the ties that bind a family together. These ties mean far more than plain memories and affection — they are composed of an infinite variety of emotions: love, sorrow, joy. We are our family tree, leaves and branches, students and teachers, each supporting the other. We are known by our fruits, and what better place to grow them than on our family tree. A division — yet oneness; individuals — yet a whole. We are our family and our family is love.

"With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of Peace.

There is one body, and one spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling." Ephesians 4:2-4

Homecoming is always a popular part of the school year and the events which go along with it are well-received. The Senior party generated much spirit and the week was off with a bang! Dress-Up Day showed off S.B.E.C.'s classier side as beautiful girls and handsome guys paraded the halls in tuxs and long dresses. Twenty-four hours later, the school was a flurry of color and costumes as Disguise Day got under way. The Spirit Rally Thursday night inspired all with determination. Not even the sudden rain could dampen the enthusiasm of those present.

Spectacular was the only word for it. This year's Homecoming had to have been the best one ever, and all the classes were pepped up and ready to cheer the "New Blue" on to a victory!

Friday was entitled "Jeans and Jersey Day". It was several hours of pure spirit and excitement. The separate classes displayed signs and posters in a friendly competition and to cheer the Trojans on. The enthusiasm was staggering!

The Homecoming Pep Rally was fantastic. The band supplied the music, the cheerleaders supplied the action, and the crowd provided the spirit, and boy was there plenty of spirit. Immediately following the pep rally was the parade. Each class or club that participated came up with their own unique way of displaying the theme "We Are One". The day's activities were a perfect addition to the night's victories.

Students Honor Grandparents

1. Honoring the oldest grandmother of the crowd, Mr. Young presented Mrs. Bishop with a reference Bible. 2. As families gathered picnic style around "Grandma's cooking" the Jackson family of three generations enjoyed fellowship together — Miss Jackson, Mrs. Jackson, John Jackson, Mrs. Boston. 3. Lynette Gibson, Kelly Palmer, and Susan Foust sang the "S.B.E.C. Alma Mater" and "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor" in the Grandparent's Program. 4. The Statue of Liberty was portrayed by Kathryn Freeman. 5. Twenty-six elementary students, one for each letter of the alphabet, dressed in costumes portraying people and things from our American Heritage. 6. Johnny Peacock portrayed "Good Old Uncle Sam". 7. Steve Fuson and Stephanie Sinquefield kneeled in reverence while Mrs. Susan Cherry sang "Statue of Liberty". 8. Recognizing the grandparent who traveled the furthest, Mr. Young presented Mr. Davis, grandfather of Spring Younts a reference Bible. Mr. Davis traveled 2400 miles to be here on this special day. 9. Eve McKinnie and Jane Rogers escort Jane's great aunt to class visitation.

What in the world can make a man travel 2400 miles? . . . only a grandchild! This traveler, along with 600 other visitors, gathered at S.B.E.C. to spend a day with their children and grandchildren. We were intrigued and somewhat amused by recollections of their childhood years. We learned that our grandparents often enjoyed the same good times that we do now when they were our age. We found that they were also quite different in many ways. For instance, many reminisced of trekking for miles through sun, rain, sleet, and snow to school. Some recalled having all eight grades in one school room. A few grandparents even remembered having no shoes to wear to school. Most of the grandparents reminded us to be continually thankful for our many privileges.

We eagerly stuffed ourselves with "grandma's goodies" for lunch. What a special treat it was to go from the usual bologna sandwich to chicken and homemade biscuits.

Even beyond the beautiful patriotic program, the wonderful lunch, and the classroom visitation, the most special part of "Grandparent's Day" was the simple fact that we were able to spend some valuable moments with perhaps some of the most precious people on this earth . . . our grandparents.

Best Way To Begin A Day . . .

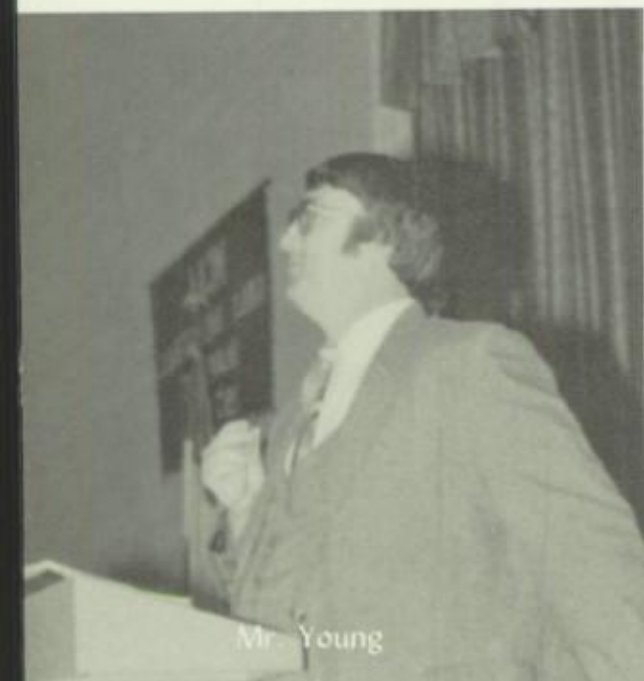

The chapels this year have been truly unique and inspirational. Every week special music is provided by either faculty or students; some of these singers have been; (1) Renee Elmore, (2) Mrs. Susan Cherry, (3) Dayon Owens, (4) Jamie Key, (5) Susan Foust and Lynette Gibson, (6) Mrs. McClure, (7) Miss Doty, (8) Pam Byrd, (9) Mrs. Seay, Mrs. Knight, and Mrs. Glover, (10) Theresa Acklen. Josif Tson, exiled from Romania, was one of our most moving speakers; he told simply about his past life which was an example of both courage and trust in God. Iris Urrey, a prostitute saved by the grace of God, was an example of God's love for her and her love to God. She was a living testimony of how God can completely change a person.

Chapel is a school tradition —
 We have it once a week,
 And many come to speak to us
 To be the guide we seek.
 Mr. Tson was from Romania,
 He came here to be free,
 To worship the only God he loves,
 One who died for you and me.
 Dennis Lugar wasn't here for long,
 Korea was his goal,
 And in the future I am sure
 He'll win many a lost soul.
 The Life-Action group once came here
 To play for us and sing,
 And through the songs they testified
 That Jesus Christ is King.
 Many more have come to speak,
 I have listed just a few,
 But all of them have said the same:
 Christ can make a life brand new.

Dennis Lugar

SBEC Supports Missionary, Dennis Lugar

What would cause a handsome young man, fresh out of college, with a bright future ahead of him to leave his family, friends, and familiar surroundings to live thousands of miles away in a foreign country where his lifestyle and culture are a completely different nature than those around him?

Dennis Lugar, a graduate of Liberty Baptist College in Lynchburg, Virginia, heeded God's call for him to be a missionary in Seoul, Korea.

Dennis is working in the Kyung-Min Christian Schools which is the largest Christian school in the world. Kyung-Min, like most Christian schools, has many lost students, even though it has a Christian title. Dennis has a special ministry to the students of the school, and is having the privilege of seeing many of them accept Christ as their own personal Savior.

Dennis is also helping in the beginning of a new Baptist church in Seoul. As a result of this church, he believes many lives will be reached for our Lord.

So that he can communicate and relate to the Koreans more meaningfully, Dennis is taking language courses which he claims are "coming slowly, but surely."

Because we believe that God is using Dennis in a very special way, SBEC has selected Dennis as "our adopted missionary." When we support Dennis with our money and prayers we have a very special part in lives being reached for Christ in Korea.

All That Has To Do With Anything

"TWO OF A KIND"

Friendship

Friendship is a priceless gift
That cannot be bought or sold,
But its value is far greater than
A mountain made of gold.
For gold is cold and lifeless,
It can neither see nor hear,
And in a time of trouble
It is powerless to cheer.

It has no ears to listen
Nor heart to understand.
It cannot bring you comfort
Or reach out a helping hand.
So, when you ask God for a gift
Be thankful if He sends
Not diamonds, pearls or riches
But the love of a real friend.

We're Just One Big FAMILY

1. There are some real "hams" in every family. 2. "Real Families" are a part of the S.B.E.C. family. These "Real Families" are made up of teachers and their children which attend S.B.E.C. 3. A typical scene at pep rallies is Coach Smith with his little boy, Barrett, riding on his shoulders. 4. Coach Rutland holds his daughter, Jamie. 5. S.B.E.C. students really believe in being "one" family. 6. Even after a summer break, students enjoy seeing each other.

The loving hands grasped a book;
Gently it rested upon knees,
Knees which had probably bounced more babies than a schoolteacher
The worn pages, bearing yellow photographs brought back cherished moments
Moments around a family
Worth more than jewels or gold.
Oh, what times there had been!
The laughter,
The tears
And always that uniting force
called love
We often stood like a small army over differences
But, win or lose the battle at hand,
We were stronger for the testing.
That strength still exists —
In convictions, judgements, and decisions.
Somehow it all worked out
But then we always knew it would.
Because we are a family.
As this book of memories is shut,
And returned to its dusty
shelf,
I understand that "family" is more than just a word.
It is the converging of souls
Into one common spirit,
The spirit of love.

This school year has been called a year of changes. The reason for many changes being made is because we have taken on a new perspective of what the purpose of a Student Council is. One area in which we have tried to achieve a better Council is in upgrading our standards of excellence. Through decisions with which we have been faced, the Council has been unified in a common love for God and for each other.

Student Council exists at S.B.E.C. to meet the needs of students, faculty, and administration, when possible. Our goal has been to help S.B.E.C. to move through changes in a positive way, so that everyone involved can see that S.B.E.C. is the "place to be."

Senior Honor Society

The National Senior Honor Society is an organization which promotes leadership and scholarship within the student body. In order to be qualified for membership, one has to maintain a 3.5 average. The various responsibilities of this club include operating the bookstore, providing a tutoring service for junior and senior high students, and sponsoring academic honors night.

Senior Honor Society enjoys a lunch away from school.

Mrs. Nellita Young — Sponsor, Mark Traylor — President, Steve McCune — Vice-President, Theresa Acklen — Secretary/Treasurer.

Junior Honor Society

It is the purpose of the National Junior Honor Society to create an enthusiasm for superior scholarship, to develop citizenship, to stimulate a desire to serve, to promote leadership, and to instill exemplary qualities of character. With these goals in mind it is the aim of the S.B.E.C. chapter to lift up, first of all, our Lord, Jesus Christ, then our school and our country. Because of this desire we have a major goal this year of making a school flag which will include our Trojan symbol with our school colors and will hold special meaning both scripturally and academically.

Guy's And Girl's Clubs Provide Fellowship

Fellowship Of Christian Athletes

The purpose of the F.C.A. is to give our athletes the proper frame of mind. Everything is done for the glory of God. The group promotes social activities of our school and monthly meetings with devotions at different athletes' homes. The F.C.A. combines both spiritual and social activities for the athlete. Once a year they compete with other athletes at the Memphis State F.C.A. Round Up.

And Service

Senior Girls Club

The purpose of the Senior Girls' Club is to minister to others. We reach out in three types of service projects — those which will benefit the school, others, and themselves. Our projects included giving boutonnieres to each football player for homecoming, throwing a Christmas party at a local orphanage, and having a charm school for the senior girls. A major project is a "Little Sisters" program introducing first grade girls to their first year at S.B.E.C. We also sponsor the High School Derby Day.

The Senior Girls' Club's goal is to promote spirit and produce unity throughout the school, and strive to do all for the glory of God according to I Corinthians 10:31.

Reaching Out In Leadership

Future Teachers Of America

FTA stands for Future Teachers of America. Each of the FTA members has one or two designated teachers which they help in grading papers, typing study sheets and other such jobs which will take some of the pressure off of the teacher. Each member must have 15 hours per semester to remain a member of the FTA Club.

The FTA is responsible for honoring teachers on holidays such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, Valentines Day, and Teacher's Day. They raise money by having carwashes, garage sales and craft sales.

The purpose of the FTA Club is to prepare young people for the future as teachers by giving them actual experience in the classroom.

The Creative Writing Class this year is full of fresh ideas and talented writers. Mrs. Knight teaches this class, which will publish a book called Treasures, Tears, and Triumphs and sell it in April. All in all, this class contains some of S.B.E.C.'s most talented and creative people who enjoy not only reading, but writing — poems, essays, plays, and short stories. The book published, is a combination of the class members' best works, and the works of our school art students, therefore, it is one of this year's best publications.

The Bible Club meets in the mornings for prayer.

The Bible Club

The purpose of the S.B.E.C. Bible Club is to band together young people in a common goal of serving Christ. It is the club's belief that in order to be a successful Christian, an individual must have a servant's heart, a sensitive spirit, and a life that is controlled by the Spirit of God and grounded in His Word.

The Bible Club desires to accomplish several objectives such as memorizing God's Word, praying and gaining an awareness of missions, specifically for our own S.B.E.C. missionary, Dennis Lugar.

Several projects were planned and it was the club's desire to bring honor and glory to God by sharing Him with others in each activity.

The Printers And The Players

Newspaper Staff

The Trojan Times Staff has accomplished a lot this year: Their sponsor, Mrs. Cordle, has been an invaluable asset, as Miss Jones has been in the photography department. The staff's main goal this year was to establish a paper whose tradition will be carried on in the future.

At the beginning of the year the staff went to a Memphis State newspaper workshop to get new ideas for the four issues that were to be put out including a Senior paper.

Standing: Cheryl Willoughby, Miss Doty, Steven Melton, Bret Bowden, John Bond, Kendall Ashmore.

Brett Bowden and Kendall Ashmore get the beat started in Pep Rally.

Gary Kieffner, Charlie Monfee, and Ramona Shelby play the brass.

The Trojan Band is back, and God is so gracious! In less than two semesters God has provided more than fifty young people who are dedicated and hard working to help rebuild our program. The students come from grades 6-9, and one grade will be added each year as the ninth graders get older. The 6th and 7th grade beginners did great, and the 8th and 9th graders, who comprised the pep band, played way beyond their capability. The band really desires to promote school spirit and to bring honor and glory to the Lord Jesus as they claim the verse Galatians 6:9, "And let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

1982 Trojan Dedication

Mrs. Tapp . . . What a special lady! A real jack-of-all-trades! She's easy to spot, always wearing a beautiful smile, and proudly displaying five or six Trojan ribbons across her blouse. As our resident cheerleader, Mrs. Tapp never fails to be "hooten' and holleren'" for us on the football field, basketball court, wrestling mats, and baseball diamond. In the classroom, her crazy stories, wonderful sense of humor, and vast knowledge make history "almost" interesting! (And that's an accomplishment!)

Mrs. Tapp never fails to be encouraging someone, giving up her time for others, building our lives to become Godly, Christian teenagers, and most of all, living her life as one that reflects Christ's love and compassion to others. It is with honor that we dedicate the 1981-1982 Trojan to Mrs. Ann Tapp.

Our Board of Trustees is a most diverse and talented group of individuals. They come from the religious, medical, legal and business professions. Our Chairman of the Board is Dr. Robert C. Moore, Pastor of Broadway Baptist Church. Our representatives from the medical field include Dr. Ray Cox, Department Head of Cancer Research at Veterans Hospital, and Dr. William B. Greer, Associate Professor of Operative Dentistry at the University of Tennessee College of Dentistry. Judge Robert Q. Whitwell, Attorney at Law in Southaven and Judge of Horn Lake, gives our Board sound legal advice. Our business representatives range from a company president to a sales manager. They are Ken Miller, President of Florida Safety Products; James A. Stroud, owner and principal photographer for Photography by Stroud; Fred R. Bowman, Tresurer of Seessel's Grocery Store; James W. Garrison, Assistant to the President of NAPA Memphis Distribution Center; James H. Brackeen, Transportation Department Delta Airlines; William R. Gorman, Representative for State Farm Insurance and George E. Crone, Sales Manager for Fluid Power. We are most grateful for the service and direction they give to S.B.E.C.

ADMINISTRATION

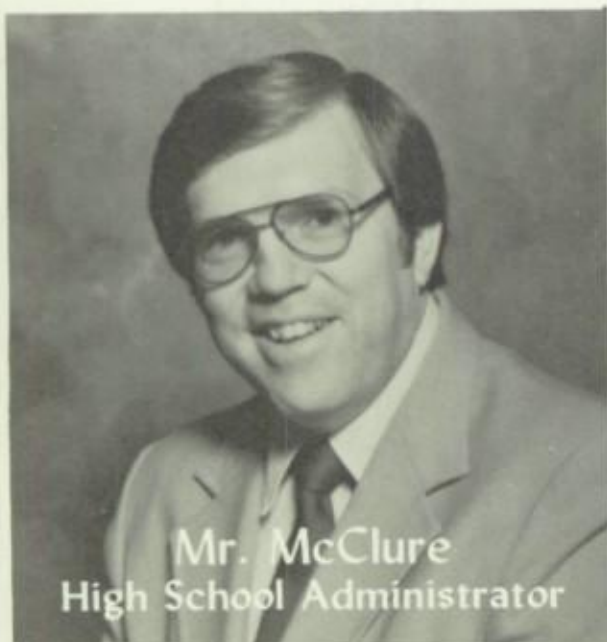

"What Do The Students Teach You?"

"I have gained tremendous insight in working with the students at S.B.E.C., as well as working with their parents. I guess one of the greatest insights that I have gained which has been beneficial in my own life is the fact that parents need to be prepared to be imitated by their children. My responsibility allows me, often times, to deal with parents as well as students and, in practically every case, the student's attitude and actions are a reflection of the parents' attitude and actions. With three children of my own, I am trying to be careful to respond in such a way to every situation and every circumstance that it will be pleasing to the Lord. I recognize that whether my response is good or bad, more than likely, my children will imitate my actions. It has been a real joy to watch parents respond properly to various circumstances here at school and then to watch their children respond properly also. I trust that this insight which I have gained from our students will make me a better parent and administrator." Paul E. Young, School Administrator

As head of the SBEC family Mr. Young exemplifies a father who loves his children. He is a concerned "parent" who prays for his "family", disciplines, encourages, and has a great vision for the future.

"What Do The Students Teach You?"

"Teaching and being involved with young people is always a learning experience. If you don't learn from your students then you are not involved in such a way as to teach them.

The most important thing that I have learned from the students at S.B.E.C. is patience, enthusiasm, and concern for other people." Mr. McClure

"Eighteen years of working with children has taught and continues to teach me patience. I have also learned that it's so important to let children be children with all the fantasies and joys that only childhood can offer. (Also how to match the arrows on the Excedrin bottle.)" Mrs. Wilkinson

As high school principal, Mr. McClure has been at S.B.E.C. for two years. Through his humble, loving attitude and Christian witness, he has won the loyalty of teacher and student alike. His background of teaching, coaching, and administration combined with his truthfulness and fair dealings make him an ideal principal.

Mrs. Wilkinson makes the job of elementary principal seem easy, and that is far from simple. Her determination and love of God are but the basics for the strength she calls upon to fulfill her duties.

The S.B.E.C. secretaries do everything from typing letters to nursing sick students. They are the center of school communications. They know how, why, when, and where everything and anything is going on. To the office staff of S.B.E.C., we salute you.

Reading, writing, and arithmetic are important elements of an elementary student's education, but these subjects should be equalled by interest in good books, the Arts, and Bible. Mrs. Rodgers introduces new authors and stories to curious youngsters. Mrs. Brown teaches art and music to create appreciation for the great works of history. Mrs. Jackson teaches Christian ethics and Biblical principles to her young Bible students. All these speciality classes, library, art and music, and Bible are classes to which the students look forward.

"What Do Your Students Teach You?"

"Each child has a measure of talent and creativity. It is a joy to see it develop." Mrs. Brown

"Faith is never so beautiful or obvious as when seen in the life of a child." Jo Jackson

"I feel that students have made me realize that we must be good examples for them. They can see through us if we are not completely honest with them. We should exhibit the same Christian love that we tell them they should have." Jean Rodgers

I need understanding when I pray for hurt puppies and kittens, sore toes and fingers, and lost baby dolls. I am realizing more and more the things that seem so unimportant to adults are so very important to children." Cindy Woods Kindergarten and first grade teachers always have their hands full. For most of their students, it is only their first or second year of school, and the idea of it is still new and can be frightening. But the teachers are kind and comforting, and the kids quickly settle down to the interesting activities the days ahead hold for them.

"What Do Your Students Teach You?"

"Through the years as I have worked with children, I have known the importance of being the right kind of example but never realized until two years ago that our every move was observed and copied. One student had to have the same kind of animal cookies that I ate and another was wearing glasses down on her nose to look over them as I have to do with 'half' glasses. My students have taught me that we all are truly a 'living curriculum'. Gladys Busby

"My students have taught and are continuing to teach me the importance of listening. This is an important lesson not only in teaching, but in everyday life. Time must be given to everyone to be heard without quickly pushing them away until later." Miss Shappell

"I enjoy teaching young children because of their honesty, their sincerity and their love. They encourage me to be a better teacher." Mrs. Greer

"Children are the greatest teachers of love, patience, and understanding. Their child-like faith reminds me constantly of where my faith needs to be." Mrs. Vickery

"What Do Your Students Teach You?"

"Working with elementary children teaches me to be aware of simple pleasures. As "grown-ups" our lives often become complicated by materialism, and we miss the beauty and wonders of God's creation. Observing a child's "sheer joy of living" is very refreshing to me." Mrs. Burlison

"Throughout the year my children teach me great lessons in thanking God for all things. Every morning they thank God for so many of the things I seem to take for granted." Jo Ann Gilbert

Second, third, and fourth grade is a time of learning new things that they will always use. Second graders go into extensive word study such as homonyms and synonyms. Mrs. Busby and Miss Shappell have games and puzzles to help them study. Third grade teachers are busy helping their students learn how to write cursive. As strange as it may seem at first, they soon learn all about it. Multiplication is an all new process to fourth graders, but the teachers make it all interesting and fun. These students will never forget their years at S.B.E.C. and their teachers will never forget them.

Ask any fifth grader what they think of school and they will tell you it is great! In the fifth grade, students have just entered a new phase of school. For the first time, they have been changing classes, having not just one teacher throughout the year, but several. Then in sixth grade, the young future high-schoolers, make preparation for the big change! From elementary to junior high, school will never be the same after sixth grade.

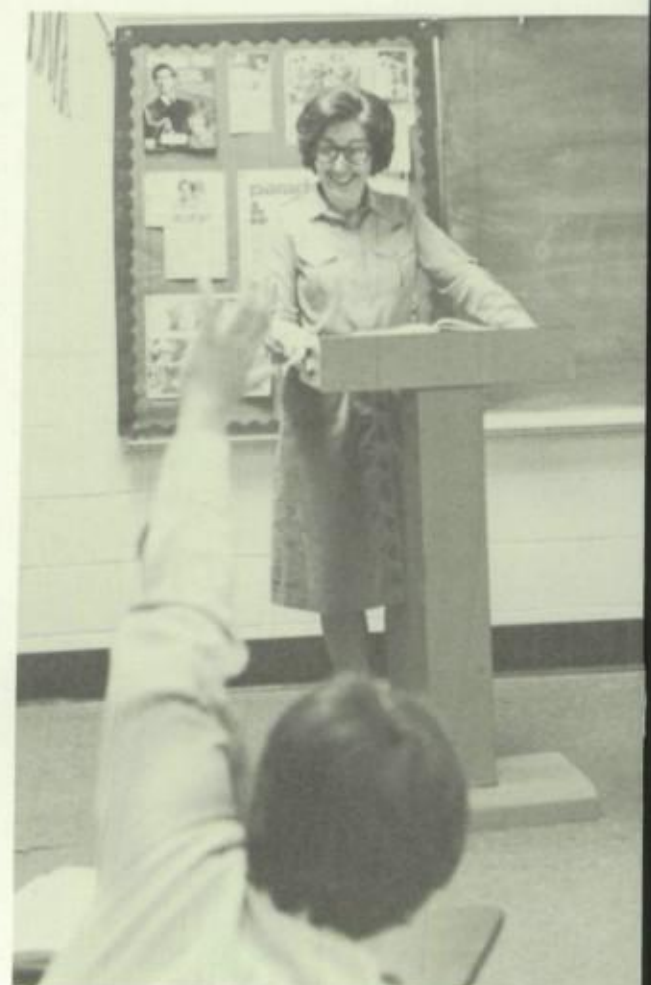

What Do Your Students Teach You?

"My students teach the necessity of a kind heart and the worth of every individual in God's eyes. They also teach me to love, forgive, and serve." Mrs. Glover

"My students teach me that they do not usually appreciate, what I appreciate, i.e., a love for learning. My patience and understanding of their interest must dominate in the classroom." JoAnn Haughton

"My students teach me to be genuine because they detest a phony; they teach me to have faith, for so many of them have such a lovely faith in Christ; they teach me honesty, for they want me to speak the truth; they teach me joy, for they want to see contentment in my Christian life; they teach me to laugh, for their fun is simple but quick and honest; they teach me to care, for their hurts are real and important; and they teach me to love, for they love without reservation — and I love them!!" The excellence of our English teachers makes grammar enjoyable and literature come alive. The Juniors enjoyed an annual trip to the home of William Faulkner, and many students attended the musical "Annie". Often strange characters can be seen walking the halls, but no one gets upset. They are just students dressed as characters in their book reports. But grammar is taught too, and of one thing I am certain: "Ain't none better than them teachers for learnin' us students how to talk."

The Social Science department includes history, man's role in society, and government studies. From the patriots stopping the British at Yorktown to the first man on the moon, American history covers all the events of our nation's past. Government contracts, Marriage and the Family reports, and Psychology tests require long hard hours but reward a student with a feeling of time well spent in learning about life and how to live. Economics teaches a student how our society works and how he or she can take a part in it. These and many other classes are what makes our Social Science department successful.

"At trying times when students think irresponsibility has justifiable excuses they teach me patience. Students also teach me that students are people who respond to love and concern and that they respect those in authority who believe in discipline and the subjects they teach.
Doris Gregory

"My students were asked this question and they overwhelmingly said patience. I honestly feel they have, and most importantly, taught me how to care.
Lorraine Jones

"My students teach me the great diversity to be found in human beings. Every day with them is different from every other day and they make each one a joy in some certain way."

"My students teach me a greater respect for God's precious creation — His children. Each is different in his own special way, each has a different home situation and background, but every one of them has the need to be loved. Nellita Young

"My students teach me the importance of being consistent and living out the convictions that God has placed upon me as a Christian, not only are we to instruct but we are to provide by our life, action and reactions, a living illustration of what God can do in a person's life. Students are not only looking for answers they are looking for examples." David Manley

"My students teach me to laugh, have fun, and yet be serious enough to help them grow in any aspect of their life." Julie Russnogle

"To smile. Many times I have had my spirit lifted by students who greet me with a smile. To be helpful. The willingness of our students to always help each other as well as the faculty. But most of all is he caring. Every day, I see students caring for each other, always ready to show their genuine concern for another. These are a few of the things my students teach me daily." Coaches Lead A Busy Life

"One, two, three, one. One, two, three, two." These are the sounds you hear at the beginning of each period in the gym. They are usually accompanied by noises that closely resemble panting, huffing, and puffing. Physical education serves to help a student stay in good physical shape as well as to teach him how to stay that way in the future. Daily exercises are only a part of the curriculum, there are also skill tests, new games to learn, old games to practice and general all-round fun. P.E. is a fun as well as rewarding class.

However, P.E. is not the only thing that coaches teach. Coach Rutland teaches Drivers Education, Coach Poppenheimer is in charge of study halls, and Coach Smith teaches science and math. All of our coaches are kept busy, whether in a classroom or on the field.

SCIENCE: Experimenting With Life

"No, don't drop that flask! Be careful, that scalpel's sharp! Yes, I'm sure it's dead." One thing about the science department, it's not boring. It is a real "take part" subject, just ask any of the students. From whistling guinea pigs to "mad scientists" our students encounter it all in the science department.

One of the main desires of the science department is to help the students view science through the light of God's word. We want every student to realize that science is merely discovering God's laws.

"Everyday of teaching in Junior-High it becomes more and more evident that I still have a lot to learn to be able to answer all the 'if' questions that my seventh and eighth graders ask. They teach me things I didn't know that I didn't know." Jo Peacock

"My students teach me what I really am — which I pray is an outshining of an indwelling Christ. Luke 6:40 states that 'The student is not above his teacher; but when his training is complete, he will be like his teacher.' "The most important thing my students teach me is 'patience'. It is impossible to be a good teacher without patience 'given by God'. I have also learned to love regardless if I am loved in return — it is letting Jesus love through me. My students teach me to be a minister, a counselor, a mother, a friend, a disciplinarian, and a sermon." Pat McClure

Miss Doty always lights up our life with music. Even when rain-drops keep falling on her head, she always rises again to make us feel alive and like singing. Under her leadership the band is growing and has added a new dimension of excitement at pep rallies and sporting events.

A true artist, Mrs. Bowen, with mere pen and ink, makes paper come alive. She puts into her subjects the same life as her pictures, that is why her classes are so great. The art department offers a good variety of creative experience in both beginning and advanced courses.

Mr. Stewart has an incredible way of taking straight lines and figures and turning them into plans of symmetrical grace. His goals for the department are as wide as the subject itself.

The new computer course taught by Mrs. Traylor gives the students a taste of the widely expanding computer field. Other business courses offered are typing, office practice and shorthand.

Cooking, sewing, and interior design are just a part of the Home Economics classes tackled by Mrs. McClure. It is all of these single departments that round out the education so valued at S.B.E.C.

"Thomas Watson once said, 'We are a part of all we meet. If you associate with people who lift you up, you will have gained.' My life has been encouraged, challenged, and enriched by my students. I believe when we are in God's will, every person becomes our teacher and contributes to our Christian growth." Mrs. Smith

"I believe I can and should learn something from every person I meet. It is an enriching experience to work with teenagers realizing that God has a plan for each of their lives and He is using me as a tool in developing this plan." Mr. Smith

"The Students at SBEC have taught me the guidance of the Holy Spirit to look beyond surface appearances and smiles." Mrs. Cordle

Mr. and Mrs. Smith work well together in life and business. They co-ordinate their Bible studies and present both historical and spiritual aspects of the Bible.

Mrs. Cordle gives invaluable consulting to all in search of answers to questions concerning problems at home and school.

STAFF: People We Can't Do Without

Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Hughes

Cleanliness is next to Godliness, so our school must be in heaven. Mr. Stevenson and the maintenance staff work many long hours to keep the building sparkling, the grass and shrubs neatly trimmed, and everything operating and in tip top shape. They have proven many times, any complications that come about they can solve.

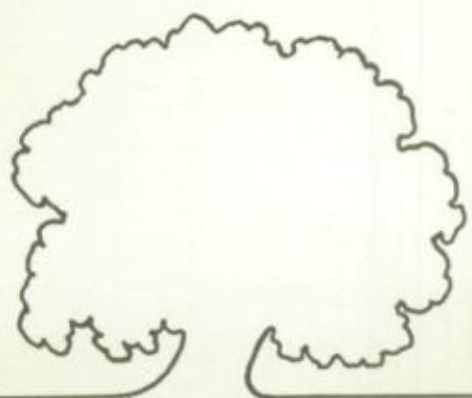

The lunchroom ladies are always busy. When they are not refilling food racks or collecting for lunches, they are assisting students or cleaning tables and never fear, no matter how late they are, they are always glad to take your money. Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Allen also work in the guidance office and library.

Editor: Regina Hatley

Mr. And Miss S.B.E.C.

Steve Hoggard and Stephanie Potts

I would like to express my appreciation to the Senior Class for electing me as Class Favorite. This is a great honor for me to be chosen by my fellow classmates to represent them now and in future years. I hope I can live up to the expectations of my classmates and of my teachers.

Steve Hoggard

I consider it a tremendous honor to have been chosen as Class Favorite. I want to thank my classmates for giving me this honor and I want to give God all of the glory for anything I have received this year and in all my years at S.B.E.C.

Most Compassionate
Tommy Bragg Katheryn Freeman

I would like to thank my Senior Class for selecting me as one of the Most Compassionate students in the twelfth grade. I feel that this is a great honor. It has always been my prayer that God would give me love for Him above anything else, and secondly a compassion and understanding for others. I feel that through my Senior Class, God has truly answered my prayer.

Katheryn Freeman

I cannot say a whole lot about receiving this recognition, for it is not mine, but God's. I could not act the way I do or live the way I live if it were not for Christ living in me. He is the One Who gets all the glory; I don't have any of it because I am no comparison to Jesus Christ our Lord. Thank you, Lord, for letting Your light shine through me to the Seniors of S.B.E.C.

Tommy Bragg

"God created man in his own image" and in His image we have the ability to create. Most Creative is an honor that I will never forget, and I hold my class that much more dear for giving it to me. Without my friends to back me up, I never could have done the things I have, and I praise God for letting me go to a school where I could do so much.

Lou Carmichael

I feel honored to receive the title of Most Creative in the Who's Who this year, although every characteristic I have has been given to me by the Lord. Because of this, I want to give Him all the glory. I want to thank my classmates for electing me, and I hope that I will always live up to this title.

Ty Hodges

I was very excited to have been given the honor of being the Most Dependable girl in our class. Just to know that my classmates see this quality in me lets me know that my life alone is a witness. Through the rest of my life, I pray that people will always be able to see this character quality, and know that they can depend on me.

Regina Hatley

To be voted into the 1982 Who's Who as Most Enthusiastic boy is a great honor and privilege. God made me "hyper" and enthusiastic — it's just "me" and I want to be a leader of enthusiastic Seniors in 1982.

Eric Ashworth

Being elected Most Enthusiastic by my fellow classmates really meant a lot to me. Serving seven years as an S.B.E.C. cheerleader has given me a great love and sense of loyalty to this school. It has also given me an opportunity to play a small part in building enthusiasm among classmates. I'd just like to say "Thanks" to my Senior Class — you've definitely been the best.

To me it is an honor to be voted by my classmates as Most Loyal. I feel that my school is one of the most important things at this point in my life. I should, therefore, be dedicated to something that is such a big part of my life. I love my school and everything it has been to me. I feel that this is my duty to be loyal to something that has given me so much.

Kathy Simpson

I really appreciate being elected into the Who's Who as the Most Responsible girl of my Senior Class. It really thrills me to think that this is what the senior class sees in me. This makes me want to be more responsible than before. I'll always have the desire to finish a task which has been given to me. As God tells us, the one who is able to handle responsibility will be given more responsibility.

Bonnie Beal

To be selected into the Senior Who's Who as the Most Responsible guy, I believe, is a privilege and an honor. I don't feel worthy of the honor, but I am flattered that my classmates perceive me that way. I pray my life will always reflect responsibility.

Chuck Ryan

It is a great honor to receive the title of being the Most Sincere of my Senior Class. As a Christian I want my life to be as God would have it and for my character qualities to be like the ones God has set for me in the Bible. I feel that what my classmates have seen in me as sincerity is the strength I have received from the Lord to help others. I feel that God has really blessed me by allowing me to be so honored with this title.

Teenagers Of The Week

Steve Hoggard is an exceptional choice for Teenager of the Week. He has served as President of the Fellowship of the Christian Athletes for two consecutive years, and was chosen as the first "Prep Player of the Week" and "Most Valuable Player" in football. He was chosen as Class Favorite and Mr. S.B.E.C. by his classmates. Steve plans to attend the University of Tennessee at Martin and receive a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology. Steve attends Whitehaven Baptist Church.

Stephanie Potts was selected Teenager of the Week because of her many outstanding accomplishments. She has been a cheerleader for seven years, and is presently captain of the varsity squad. Stephanie is serving as Senior Class Secretary, and is on the "Trojan Times" newspaper staff. She was nominated as First Alternate in the 1981 Football Homecoming Court, Most Enthusiastic, and Miss S.B.E.C. Stephanie plans to attend University of Tennessee Medical School and receive a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing. Stephanie attends Broadway Baptist Church.

Hall Of Fame

Pam Haynie has attended S.B.E.C. for eight years, during three of these years, she has been a member of the National Honor Society. Presently, she is a member of the Senior Girls Club, and a Student Council Representative. Pam attends Trinity Baptist Church.

Chuck Ryan has attended S.B.E.C. for nine years. He participated in football and wrestling since his sophomore year, and is presently serving as Vice-President of Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He was recently chosen as Most Responsible in the Who's Who elections. Chuck attends Whitehaven Baptist Church.

1982

Pat Haynie has been a student at S.B.E.C. for eight years. She has been a member of the National Honor Society for three years and is currently serving as Vice-President. Pat is a member of the Senior Girls Club, and a Student Council Representative. Pat attends Trinity Baptist Church.

Lynette Gibson has attended S.B.E.C. for four years. This year she is serving as the National Honor Society President, and as the Future Teachers of America Club Vice-President. During her Senior year, she was elected as Most Creative in the Who's Who elections. Lynette attends Broadway Baptist Church.

D.A.R. Award

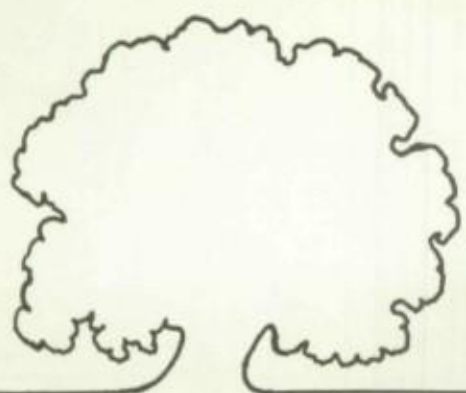

Vicki Greer is this year's recipient for the D.A.R. Award because of her many accomplishments. While at S.B.E.C. she was included in the 1981 Who's Who Among American High School Students. Presently, she is serving as editor of the Trojan Times Newspaper, and chaplain of the Senior Girls and Future Teachers of America Clubs. She plans to attend Memphis State and major in Journalism and Communications. Vicki attends Eudora Baptist Church.

From a Senior

*It has been a long road that seemed it would go on forever.
I thought, as I turned a corner, rounded a curve, or topped a hill, that the end would be soon.
But I was wrong.
The road lasted for twelve years.
They've been long years —
Until now.
The years were filled with heartaches, misconceptions, loneliness, and triumphs.
But I made it through — one moment at a time.
Now that the end of this road is nearer to a close,
I look to the new one I'll soon be taking.
And each time I hit a bump,
I'll remember the corners, the curves, and the hills,
That prepared me for being an adult.*

All Around Victory

The last homecoming week that the Class of 1982 will ever see turned out to be the best ever. Not only did the "Blue and Gold" win the football game over Frayser Baptist 7 to 6, but the Seniors ran away with the spirit stick. It wasn't easy, but the eldest Trojans united themselves to pull it off.

The Senior Class launched the week's festivities with a western party. All the 7-12th grade students were invited to get in on the fun. As the week progressed, we donned ourselves in everything from suits and dresses, to jeans and jerseys. As usual, the seniors decorated Trojan Hall with all the signs they could muster, and everyone got in on making a symbol of our sympathy for the Eagle team — the Senior Class float.

All in all, the last homecoming week for the Class of 1982 turned out to be an "All Around Victory."

Seniors do "The Roll."

Steve Rogers and Regina Hatley gave our Homecoming pep talk.

Seniors are hard at work displaying the class mural.

"Sure it's hard boiled!"

Senior Trojans express their condolences with their prize-winning float.

If Nabisco could see her now!

Jane Pickens, Stephanie Potts, and Tammi Needham enjoy the refreshments at the Senior Class party.

The Trojan Labor Force

For the past three months, Lou Carmichael has been hard at work at one of the "biggest" grocery stores in our community, Giant's. Lou does everything from rearranging shelves to running down little old ladies as he takes their groceries to their cars. (This would explain why he seldom gets tips.) All in all, Lou enjoys his job, but admits that his favorite part of working is receiving his paycheck.

Joe Phillips has been farming for quite some time now, and that's what he plans on doing for the rest of his life. He plants, picks, runs machines; the whole bit. He's a regular "Farmer Joe."

Steve Warren has been an employee at Kroger's for about two and a half years. Although he enjoys sacking people's groceries, he is now moving up to cashier. (Doug Wright, look out!) Sometimes if Steve is in a good mood, you can even get him to take your groceries to your car.

One of these days when we have nothing better to do, we might have a cashier's contest to see if Steve Warren can give Doug Wright a run for the title of "The Fastest Fingers in the South."

"There ain't no reason to go anyplace else," says Bonnie Beal. If you ever get hungry and you're near the Elvis Presley' Wendy's, stop in and let Bonnie sell you a juicy hamburger. If Bonnie happens not to be behind the cash register, you may find her cleaning the "facilities." Bonnie said that flippin' hamburgers is second only to handling the money. So stop in and let Bonnie take your order.

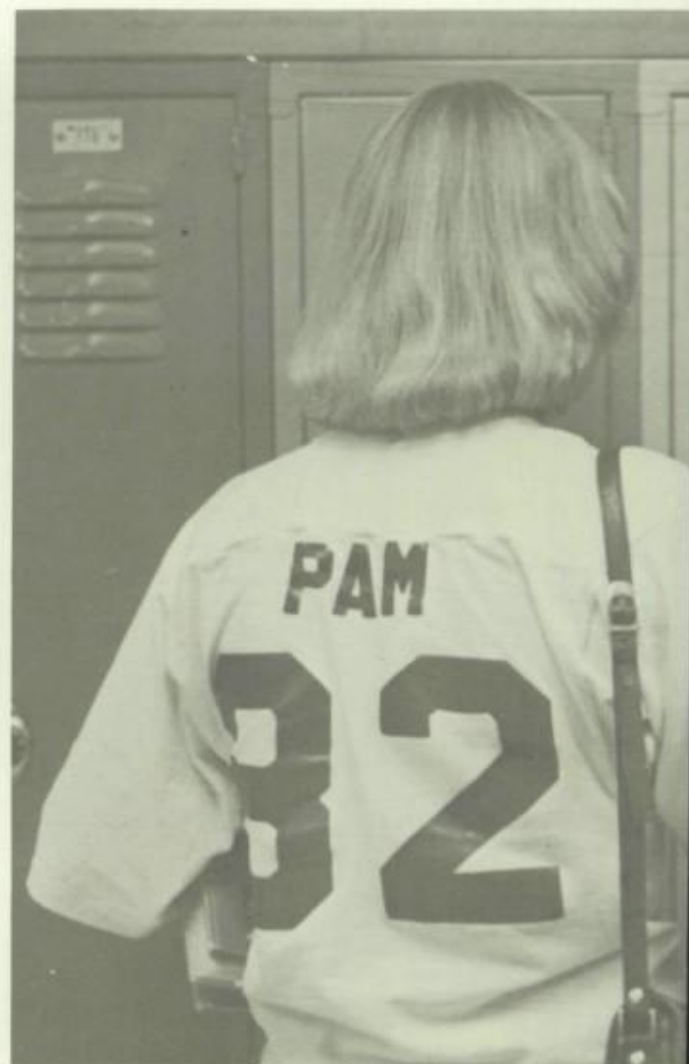

If you were to walk into the Big Star on Millbranch, and you noticed a cash register with smoke pouring out of it, you would probably find Doug Wright in front of it. Doug has to have the fastest fingers in the South because he can zip out a basketful of groceries in nothing flat. (You'd have to see it to believe it!) So the next time you need your groceries in a hurry, take your business to "Doug's Place" and see "Dynamo-Doug" at work.

For about a year now, Chuck Ryan has been peddling chicken sandwiches at Chick-Fil-A. Chuck is fast becoming one of the more elite "Chicken Pluckers." When he reaches retirement age, he might possibly still be employed at Chick-Fil-A, that is if he doesn't own the franchise himself.

Seniors Show Their Spirit

Meet the "Fern-heads" — Steve Rogers, Edd Bishop, Chuck Ryan, and Steve Hoggard.

Guess who.

Ricky Sparkman poses for the camera at a basketball game.

Stephanie Potts, Alana Harbin, and Lori Smith show off their "Beat Prep" t-shirts.

Kathryn Freeman and Michelle Goode show their enthusiasm at a pep rally.

The Senior clean-up crew — Joallen Muller and LeAnn Briggs.

Milton Harper and Keith Lewis have their minds in two different places during a pep rally.

SuEllen Broome and Hale Grotewiel show-off the latest in Senior fashion.

Ty Hodges in Heaven with Bonnie and Tammi.

Larry Pelton pensively ponders a win.

Seniors Do Their Thing

Lecil Lollar and "the Bug."

Mark Cain is found doing one of his favorite pastimes — singing and playing his guitar.

Karin Lewis shows her pearly-whites.

"Don't tell me your girl problems."

Nancy Dorroh just can't keep her mind on Chemistry.

Jeff Rogers gives his favorite Tennessee Walking Horse, Delight's Landlord, a workout.

"Government contract, today?"

Jeff "Mad-Max" Maxwell models one of the last classics, an orange convertible.

"Sometimes I stand and think, and sometimes I just stand."

Another exciting lunch period for Cathy Cox and Vicki Greer.

In The Life Of A Senior . . .

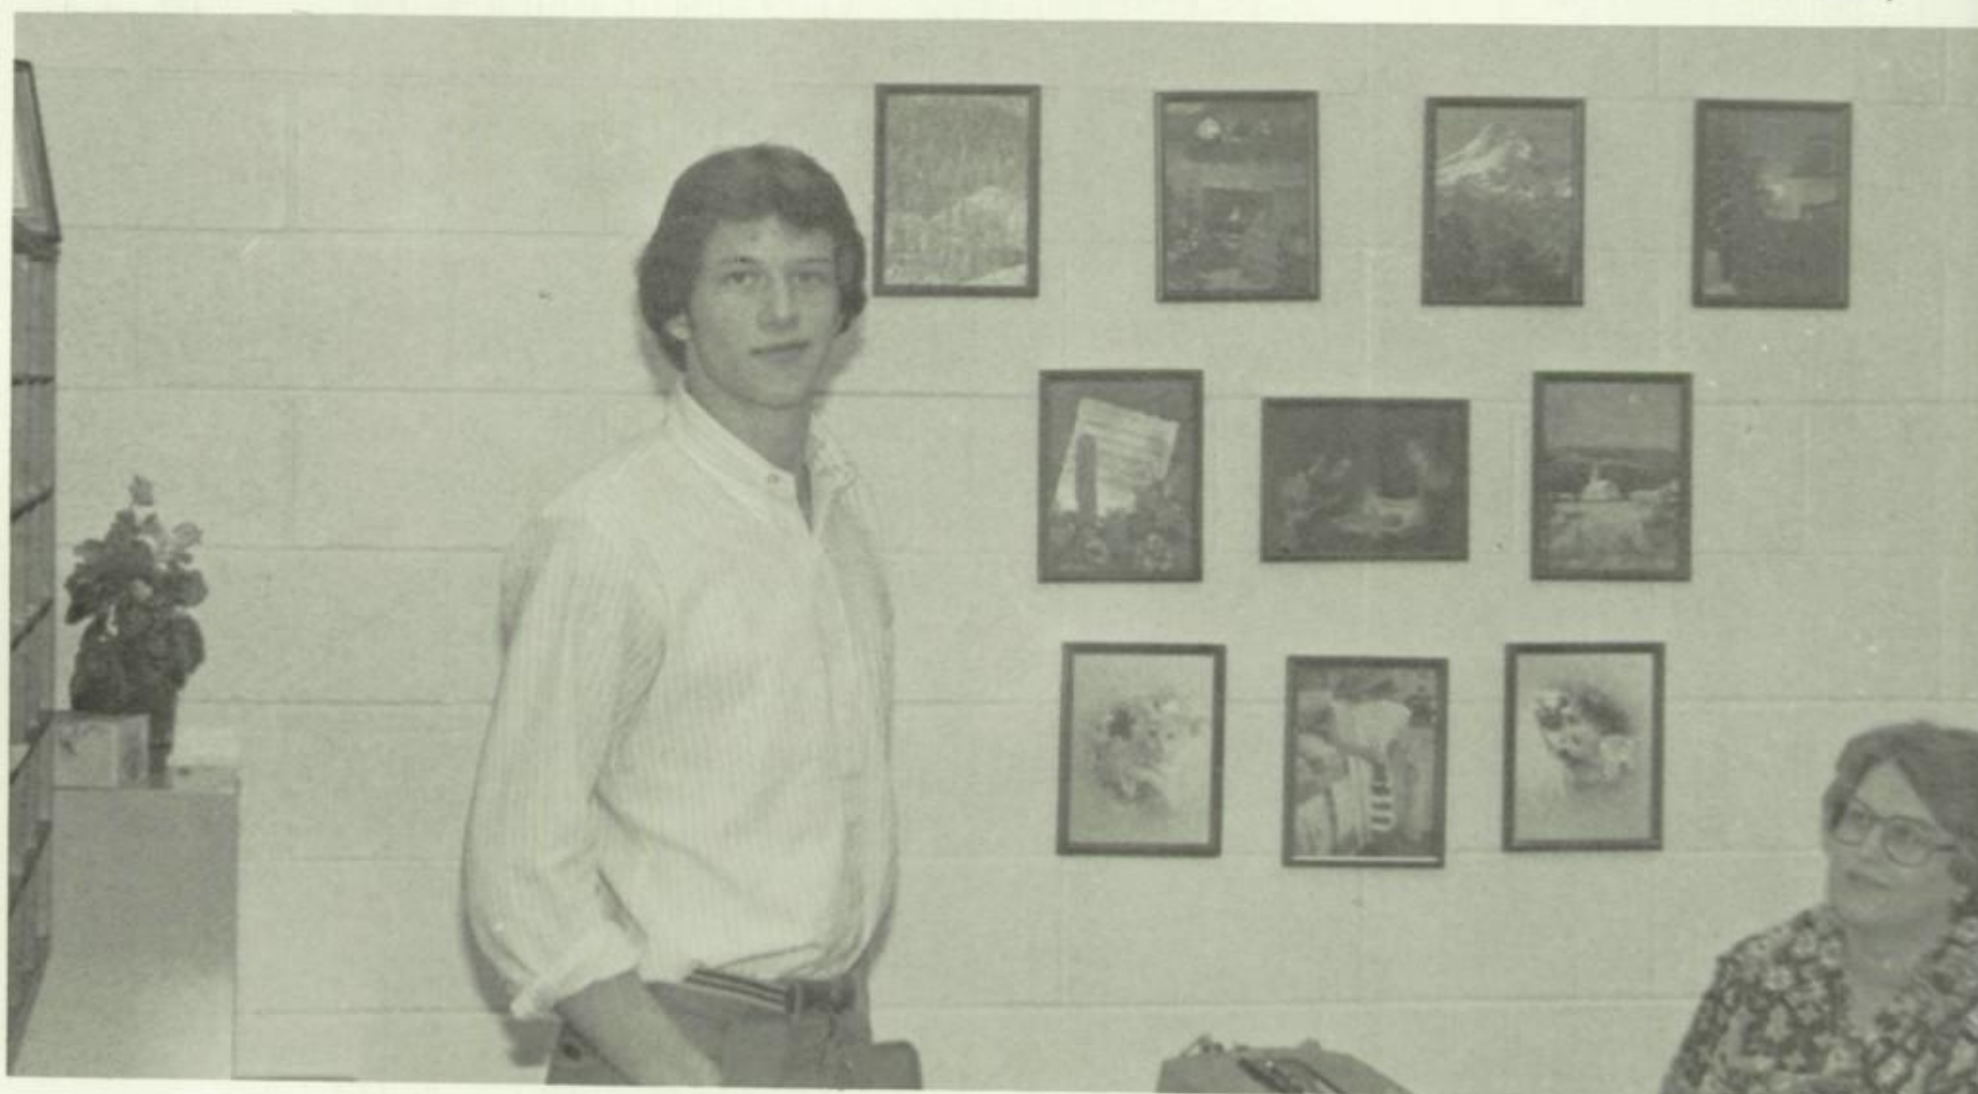

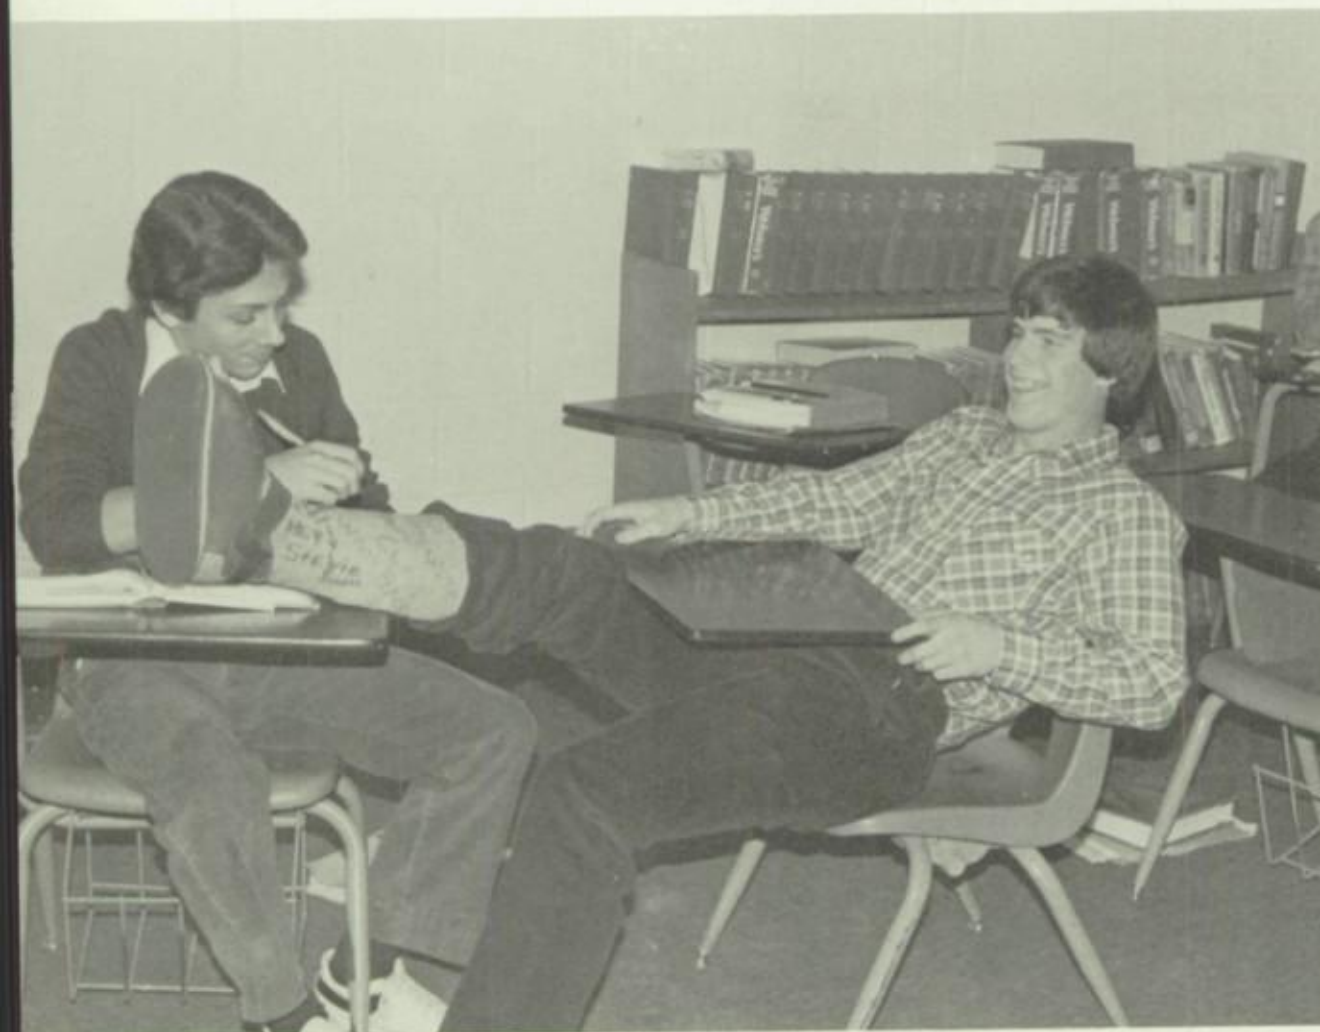

"She didn't like that excuse, guess I'll have to come up with another."

Mike Poer enjoys Business Math.

Picture this Tommy.

"Basketball is so much fun."

"Please let me go home Mrs. Sartain, I had Bowie food for lunch."

Leigh Ann Walton and Lee Anne Ware show their creativity in sewing and rug making.

These past few pages will be something to look back on after a few years have gone by. Hopefully, each picture will remind you of something everyone was "famous for," or their favorite thing to do. Each time you pick up this book and look at these pages, the days when we were seniors in high school will move from the past to the present.

The time has come to order our rings,
 We've waited long enough.
 The man from Josten's is at school,
 To tell us about that stuff.
 For one small ring there's so much;
 So many things to know.
 For everyone wants a special ring;
 One that fits just so.
 It will stand for the memories,
 That will forever last,
 And in it we will always see,
 A glimpse into our past.
 For juniors this time is special,
 It's the highlight of the year.
 So we wait and count the days,
 For the time is drawing near.

Summer Ministry

This summer, two of our tenth grade students, Greg Williford and Teri Williamson, traveled to Redding, California to work in a summer camp which is a ministry of L.I.G.H.T. Ministries. Greg and Teri, along with five other youth, left on June 12 and returned on August 8. The camp is located in the Sierra Nevada Mountain Range on the volcano — Mt. Lassen.

Each week, an average of 100 children from the first to the sixth grade attended camp. The living quarters weren't your basic cabin; each counselor, with about five children each, lived in Conestoga wagons for the whole summer.

The spiritual aspect was one of stepping totally out on faith. Sometimes being away from home for nine weeks was more than one could handle, but with the help of Jesus, they make it through. Over 150 children were saved by the last day of camp. Each person who came back, returned with burden for souls. Teri and Greg came back with a special burden for the students here at S.B.E.C.

In Latin class we had a Thanksgiving Feast, and this is just one of the many interesting things that we have done. We dressed up in togas by using sheets, and wrapped them around us like the Romans did. As we ate, we reclined on our left elbow and ate with our right hand in typical Roman fashion. Some of the foods that we ate were dates, apples, sausage balls, grapes, bread in round loaves, and cheese. For drink we sipped grape juice. We also made Latin Christmas cards and decorated the bulletin board.

Up And Running Eighth Graders

Intensity fills the room as Miss Jones tells which rows of students may begin the Math Flash. Suddenly the hushed room becomes filled with excitement, determination, and most of all, the desire to win. Desks, chairs, and students are thrust about in the mad dash for the board. Knowing that the reward of no homework for the following night hangs in the balance, the students make an extra special effort to be the first one to complete the problem correctly. A victorious shout of "I'm finished" is often coupled with disdainful looks on the faces of the defeated.

Lefties

Being left-handed, as I am most of the time, I don't feel any different than anyone else, but there are some exceptions. To me most anything used by hands is backwards such as ironing boards, some video games, and scissors. Whenever I write a composition ink smears on my hand and then on the paper. This is the only thing I don't like about being left-handed. Many times when coaches are showing a technique I have to figure out how to do it left-handed, but this is fun to do. All in all I love being lefty because it fun, fun, fun, and I feel special. If I had a choice of being left or right-handed I would choose to be left-handed. It's great!

TROJANS TURN THE TIDE

The Trojans opened the year with a bang by blowing Byhalia High School out 33-0. Steve Hoggard had a tremendous game and was voted the Prep Player of the Week by The Commercial Appeal. After losing 28 straight games during the past — needless to say, the victory was sweet for the Trojans. They didn't stop there though, the next week the Trojans increased their record to 2-0 by downing F.A.C.S. 7-6 when Ricky Sparkman blocked the F.A.C.S. extra point. El-liston was next on the list with a strong team. S.B.E.C. played their hearts out and swallowed their first defeat on a last second missed extra point conversion, falling 18-20.

The Trojans visited O.B.A. the next week and lost another heart-breaker on a last-second O.B.A. touchdown, falling 14-19. Homecoming was next and S.B.E.C. was not to be denied. Scott Keenum had an 86-yard touchdown return off a kickoff to give the Trojans a 7-6 victory over Frayser Baptist. S.B.E.C. was home against Skyview next and pulled out a 15-6 victory, with some spectacular catches by Leslie Weldon. Next the Trojans took to the road again with different results — S.B.E.C. annihilated Westside, 55-6. John Jackson had three touchdowns, Steve Fuson had two, and Jerry Brigance also had two. Prep was playing host to S.B.E.C. in the next game and the fourth ranked Panthers had all they could handle. Spence Hood's one-yard run capped a 75-yard drive by the Trojans in the second half. Prep scored the winning touchdown with 58 seconds to go, on a 25-yard drive. S.B.E.C. had showed itself strong against the state-bound Panthers, 7-14.

Then S.B.E.C. traveled to E.C.S. and came out firing, taking the opening kick-off for the game's only touchdown. The Trojans third ranked defense played tough the rest of the night to save the victory 7-0. Once again the Trojans were to take on a state-ranked team, Catholic, and once again S.B.E.C. showed itself strong. S.B.E.C. lead the whole game, and three times held Catholic inside the S.B.E.C. 10 yard line. However, Catholic scored the games winning touchdown with 1:01 left in the game. For the fourth time in the year S.B.E.C. had lost a heartbreaker in the closing seconds. S.B.E.C. finished the regular season with a strong 6-4 mark. The Trojans were now headed for the Gordon-Browning Bowl in Huntingdon, Tennessee, to face Adamsville.

BOWL BOUND

The Trojans headed for Huntington, Tn. Nov. 12, 1981 for a date with the Adamsville Cardinals. The Trojans were well represented by one of the largest crowds in the Bowl's History. The Trojans came out strong with an opening drive for a touchdown. The Cardinals drew even with a second quarter touchdown. Just before the half, the Trojans regained the lead on a punt return. The Cardinals came out strong in the second half for an early Cardinal touchdown. Adamsville went for 2, giving them a 15-14 lead. Defense was the name of the game in the second half. The Trojans mounted a last effort drive with three minutes to go. S.B.E.C. moved the ball swiftly down the field to the Adamsville six yard line, with just seconds remaining, the Trojans were penalized with 3 quite controversial 15 yard penalties. This choked the S.B.E.C. drive and the Trojans would have to wait for another year. S.B.E.C. had once again shown itself strong, and Steve Fuson was awarded the games "Most Valuable Defensive Player". Good Luck next year Trojans!

SBEC Snap Losing String;

PREP PLAYER OF WEEK

SBEC's Hoggard Honored

By LARRY REA

"It was different," said Southern Baptist Ed Center football coach David Manley after the Trojans snap a string of 28 straight losses with over Byhalia, Miss., last night at SBEC.

The victory was the first by the Trojans since over Towering Oaks in the first game of the SBEC went on to lose its next nine games in a row in 1979 and 10 straight last year.

SBEC shared the all-time record with (48) for most losses in a row.

"That's all behind us now," said a he can't really describe how I feel.

A 14-yard run by Steve Hoggard, a weathered the bulk of SBEC's streak, put their way to the victory.

The Trojans added two safeties to the third period, and Hoggard iced the yard scoring run. Hoggard also had three Hoggard rushed for 100 yards on Elsewhere:

CLASS A SCORING DEFENSE

It was a play Steve Hoggard won't soon forget. Taking a pitchout he headed for the left corner. Spence Hood's block cleared Hoggard's path to the goal line and the Southern Baptist Educational Center halfback ran easily into the end zone for a 20-yard touchdown.

Nothing has come easily over the past three years for SBEC's football team. Not scoring. Not making first downs. Not even winning.

"But this one came easy," recalled Hoggard, whose touchdown run sent the Trojans on their way to a 33-0 victory over Byhalia, Miss., last Friday night at SBEC. The victory was the first for the Trojans since 1978 and stopped a string of 28 losses in a row.

For his effort, the 180-pound Hoggard has been named The Commercial Appeal's prep football player for 1981.

SBEC Kept Faith — And Won

By LARRY REA

David Manley knows how Dennis Green, the head football coach at Northwestern University, must feel.

Granted, Manley coaches at the high school level while Green's team is in the prestigious Big 10 Conference. But Manley, the second-year coach at Southern Baptist Educational Center, believes even in the midst of a losing streak there's always hope.

"I've read most of the articles recently about Northwestern and how many games they've lost in a row (29) and I can feel for them because we've been there and it isn't easy," said Manley.

"But if you work hard enough and believe in the Lord something good's going to happen to you."

Manley's SBEC Trojans are living examples of keeping the faith.

The Trojans carried a 28-game losing streak into the 1981 season, equalling the Shelby metro record for most losses in a row. They took care of that mark in their opener, beating Byhalia, Miss., 33-0, and finished with a 6-4 mark. That earned the Trojans a spot opposite Adamsville in the Gordon Browning Bowl tonight at Huntingdon.

"Actually, we started gearing ourselves for this season way back last December," added Manley. "We made up our minds then to have a winning year. Then, we had a scrimmage in the preseason and won, seven touchdowns to one. Sure, it was just a scrimmage but we hadn't beaten anybody in a long, long time, scrimmage or anything." It was one of two scrimmage victories for the Trojans.

"We were fired up to start the season and the win over Byhalia just kept it going. Last year, being a first-year coach, you always have visions of a lot of grandeur and then you go 0-10."

Manley was an assistant coach when SBEC was 1-18. In his rookie year as head coach, the Trojan streak reached 28 with an 0-10 season, setting the stage for this year's remarkable turnaround.

"Everyone's going crazy at school about going to a bowl," said Manley, whose team will play Adamsville's Cardinals at 7:30 tonight. "It's unbelievable. It's a miracle, pure and simple. They sent us 250 tickets and we asked for 250 more."

"There are bumper stickers everywhere. T-shirts, too, saying 'Bowl-Bound'."

"Just about every Thursday night during the season our team would get together at the house of one of our booster club members to eat. Last week I had 24 bricks (one for each player on SBEC's 24-man roster) painted gold with the words in blue (SBEC's team colors) 'Laying the Foundation' on them. Because that's what we're doing... laying the foundation for something even better."

The Adamsville-SBEC game will be one of several bowl duels involving Memphis-area teams.

gord, a senior who had never played on a winning team in his career at SBEC. "You don't know what this will mean to us. It will mean so much to the school, our fans and especially our team. That streak won't be hanging over us again."

The Trojans led, 9-0, at halftime. Even that was new. "We'd never led at halftime before," said Manley.

"We weren't quite at halftime," recalled Hoggard. "We couldn't wait to get back out there and get it over with. It wasn't that we seniors got together and talked about this season. We got together as a team. We are dedicated to be better."

That's why Hoggard spent most of his summer vacation working out on weights. "I wanted to be in the best shape of my life and I think I am," he said, noting that he had gained 15 pounds since last year's 0-9 mark.

y said the Trojans dressed out only 24 players for game. "We started with 33 last spring, but we had lost interest, got into grade problems or said. "I had a couple of our former players ask victory if they could have another chance."

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

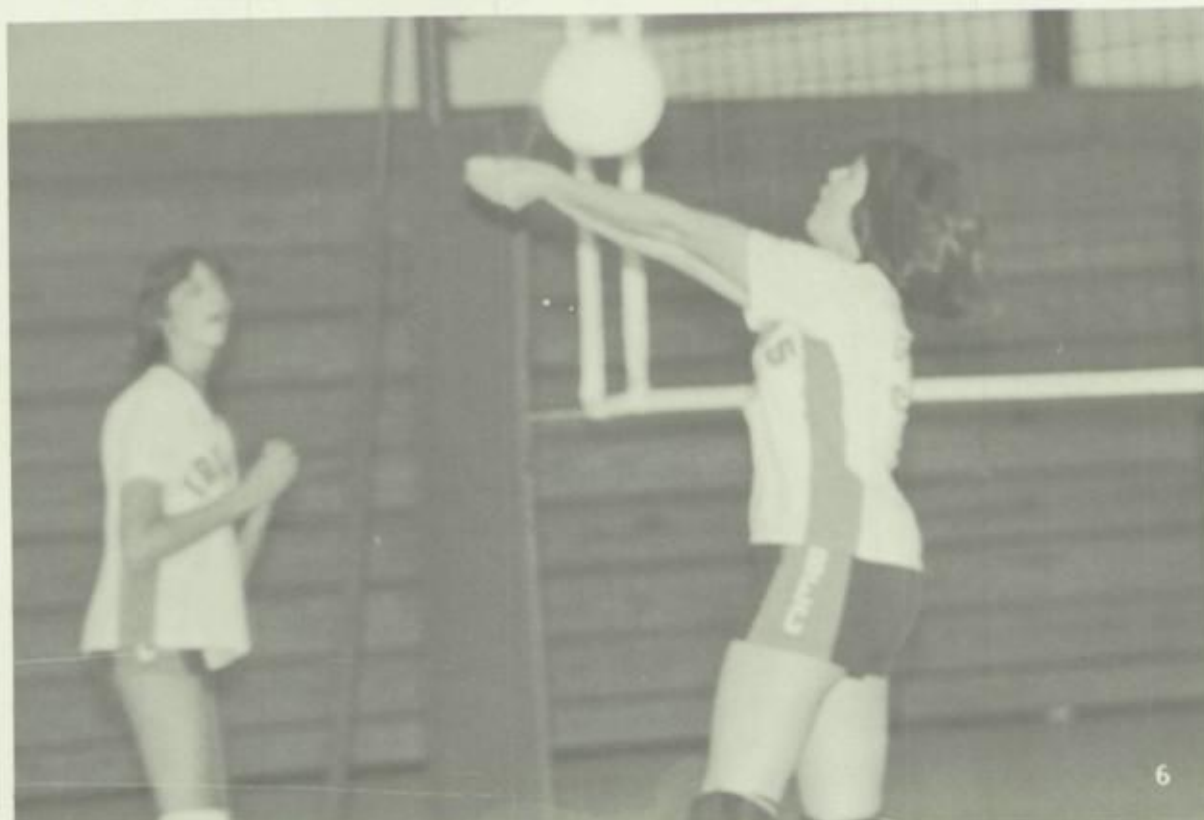

The varsity Trojans had a respectable 5-8 record. This was a year of rebuilding for the ladies, and there was much improvement. There is only one senior on the team and Coach Tom Brittain has a bright outlook on the future.

First Row: Tina Terrell, Tina Sanford, Jane Rogers, Jane Ellen Busby, Shannon Barnes Second Row: Renee Acup, Melanye Stewart, Eve McKinnie, Paula Witchen, Bonnie Beal, Coach Brittain

1) Shannon Barnes and Bonnie Beal both attack 2) Coach Brittain shows how it's done 3) Eve McKinnie goes up for another spike 4) Eve prepares for the dig shot 5) Tina Sanford keeps her eyes on the ball 6) Paula Witchen tries her backhand.

THE TROJAN SLAM

JR HIGH VOLLEYBALL

First Row: Melissa Poppenheimer, Michelle Mitchell, Missy Nelson, Lori Merrill, Elisa Mechler, Second Row: Holly Moore, Sheri Stricklin, LeeAnn Payne, Jennifer Terrell, Johnna Vaughan, Whitney Stroud, Coach Brittain

The Jr. High Volleyball team had a much improved year. With only two ninth graders, experience will be our key to victory next year.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Sherons Cross Country Team improved a great deal this year. Every team member lowered his time in the 3 mile competition. This years team members are Shands Orman, Chris Mclemore, Mark Simpson, David Bennett, Tony Holland, and Tim Gowen. The future looks very promising, since the team has five sophomores and one freshman.

VARSITY WRESTLING

The wrestling team, loaded with first-year talent, offered excitement and top-form wrestling. The team went to several tournaments this year, including the Raleigh-Egypt tournament. All of the wrestlers made a good show with several placing. In the Bishop Byrne tournament, the team met tough competition from Memphis and Nashville areas with confidence and several individual standouts. Peter Andersen won first place and also won the 138 title. Chuck Ryan and Kent Cox also placed. S.B.E.C. will host the District tournament in February. The young team ended up with a fine season and will enter next season with much potential.

Coach Brittain and Chuck Ryan are intense watching to see who will win.

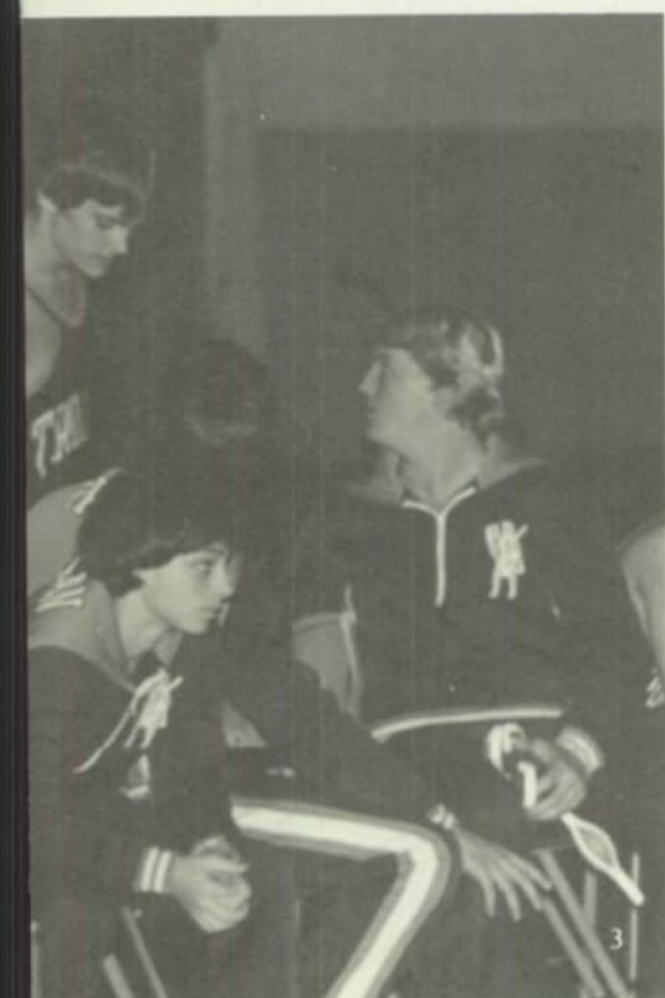

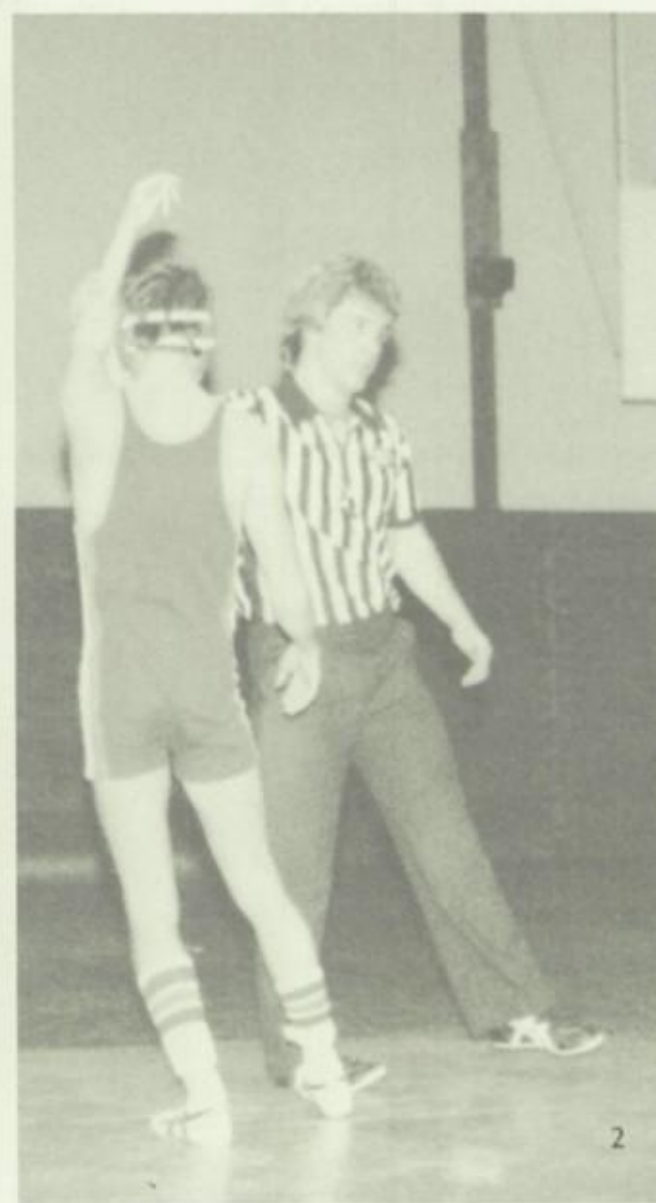

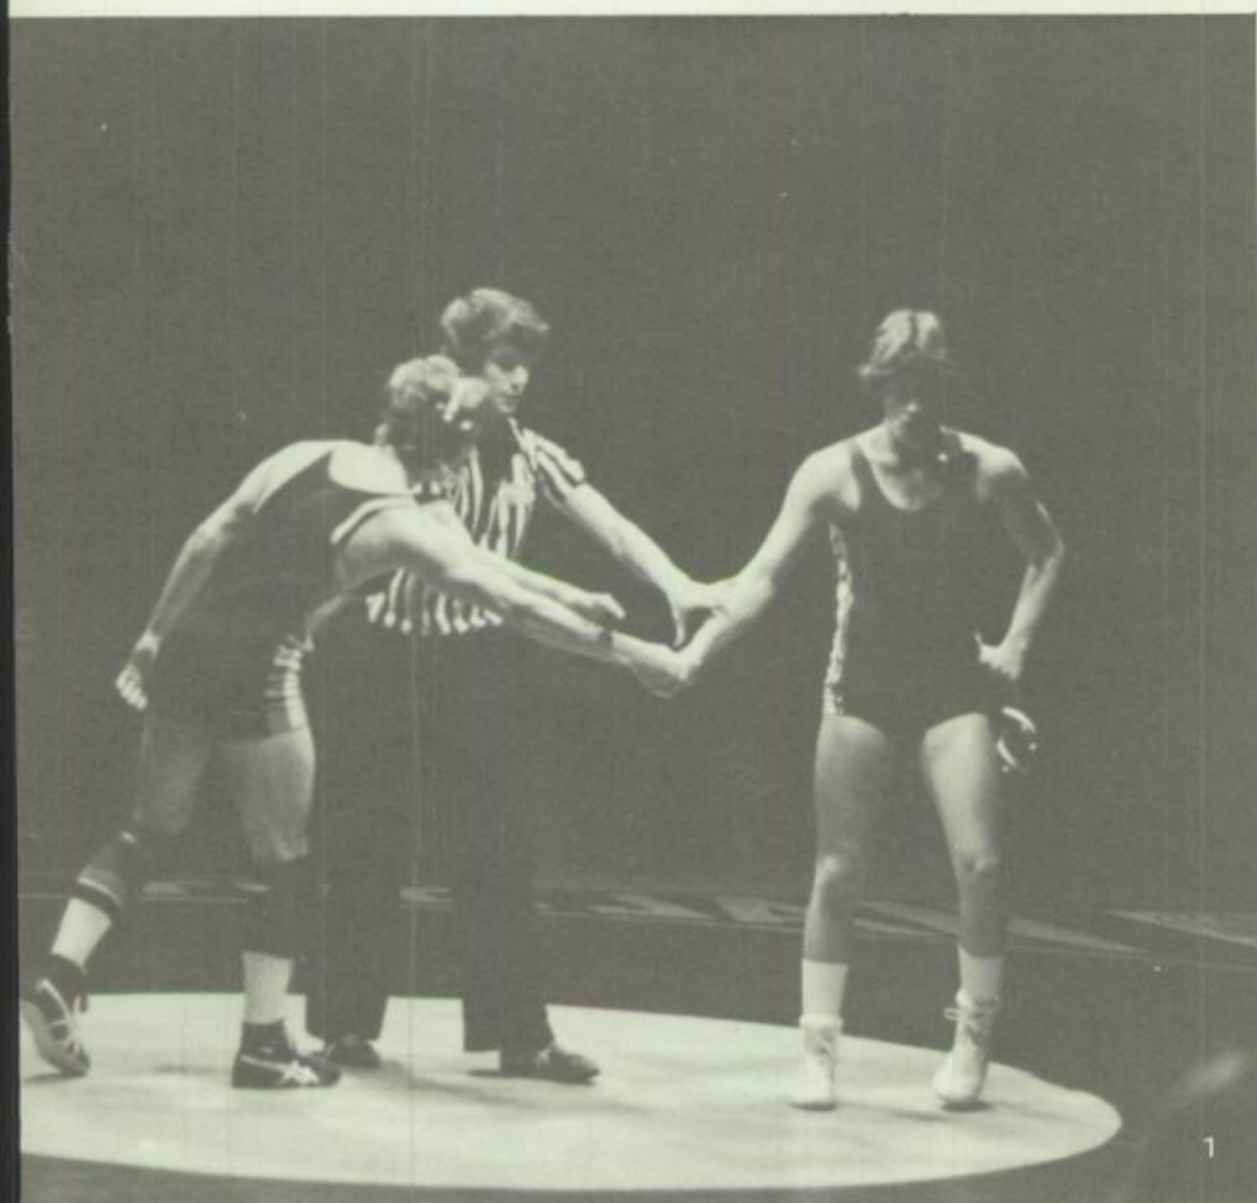

1) Chuck Ryan goes for a hold. 2) Coach Brittian discusses a controversial call with the referee. 3) Wrestlers accept congratulations after another victory. 4 & 5) Warren Brothers, Steve and Bobby, rack up two more victories.

1) The victory is worth the pain for Peter Andersen. 2) Mike Pannell sprawls to get the advantage. 3) Kent Cox prepares for a takedown. 4) A trojan attempts a turn for a pin.

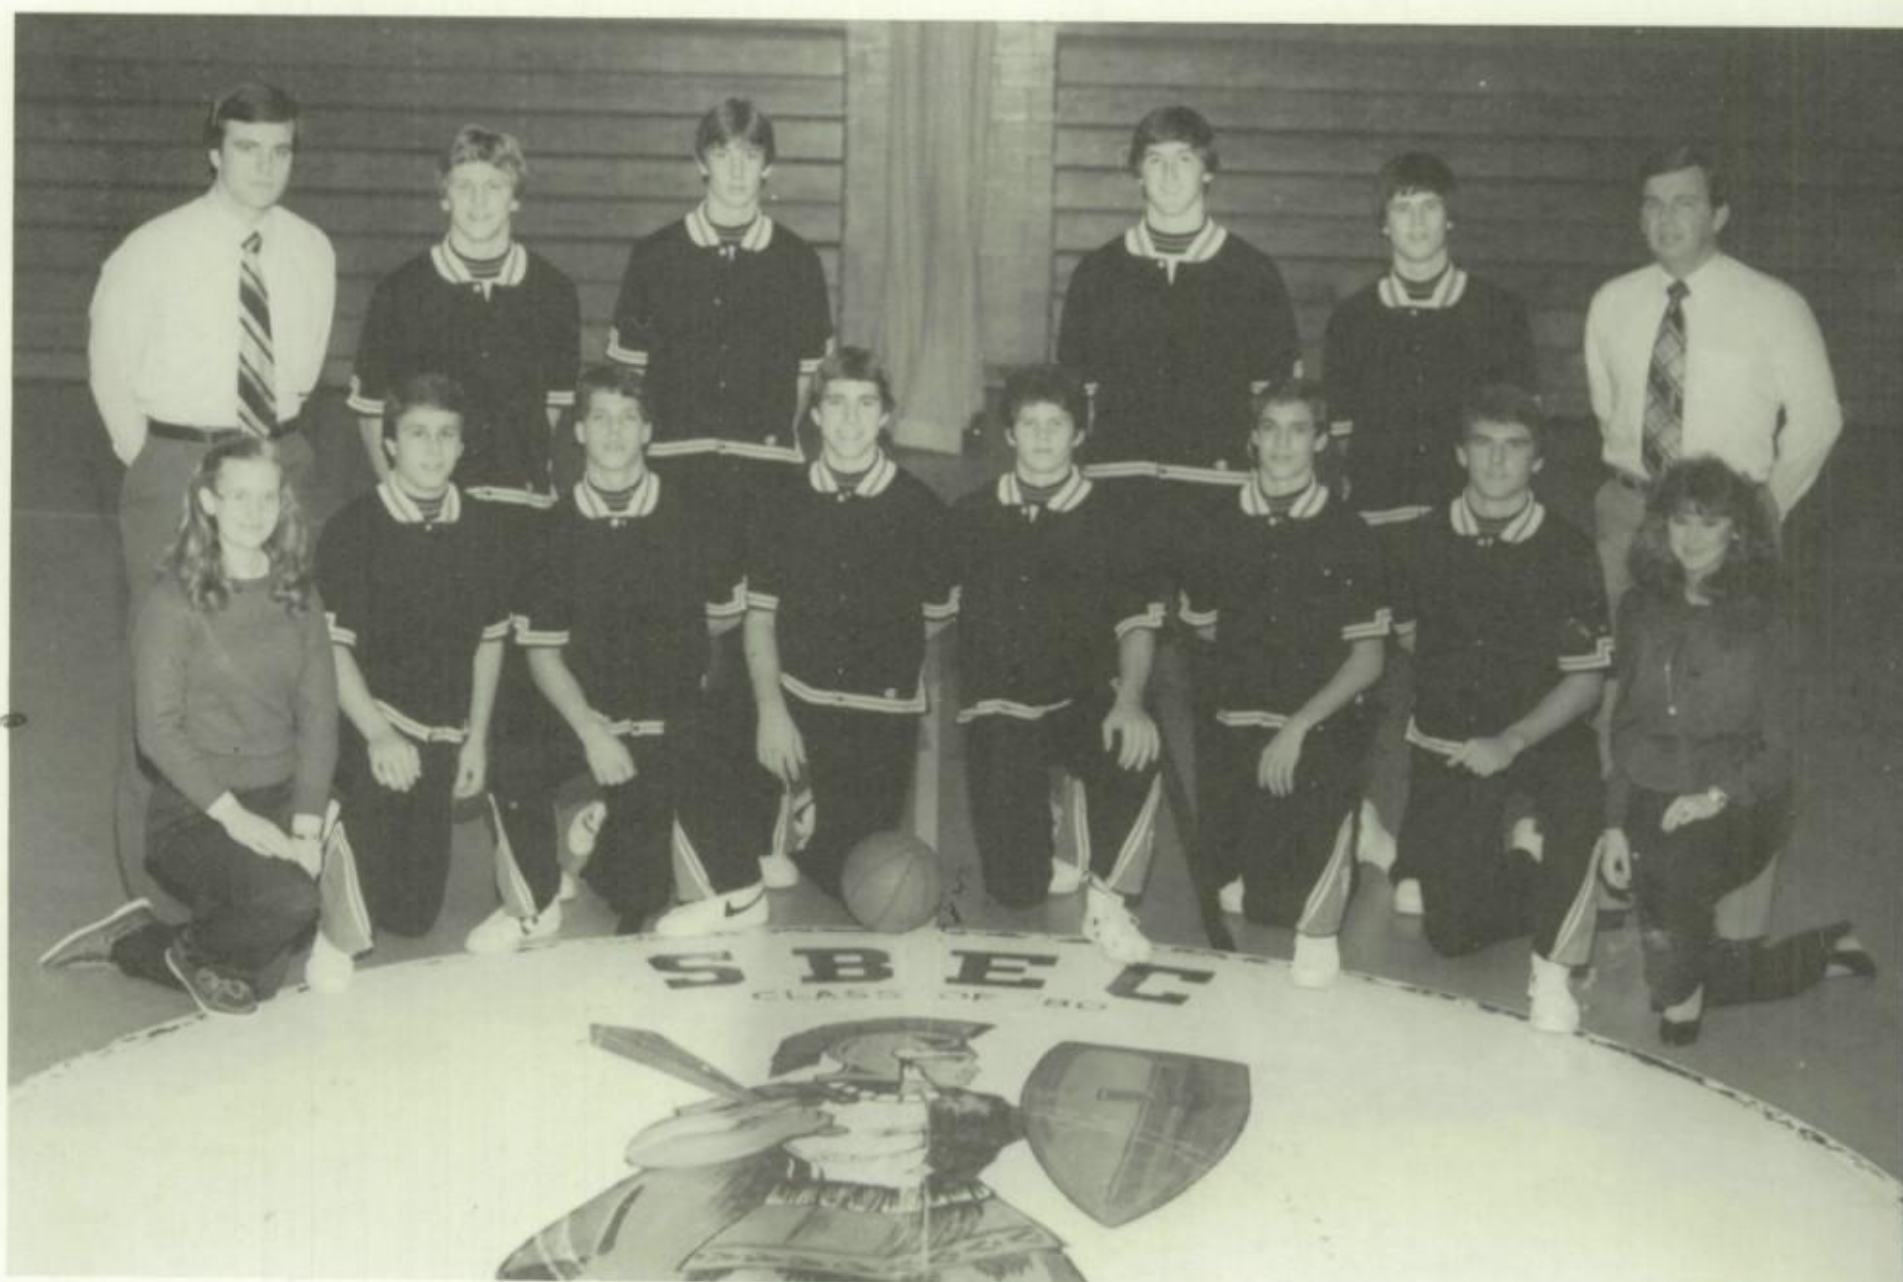

TROJANS PIN TO WIN

1) Chuck Ryan offers condolences. 2) The Trojan man wins again. 3) Chuck Ryan and John Mark Tapp discuss an upcoming match. 4) The battle begins for David Nichols.

BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL

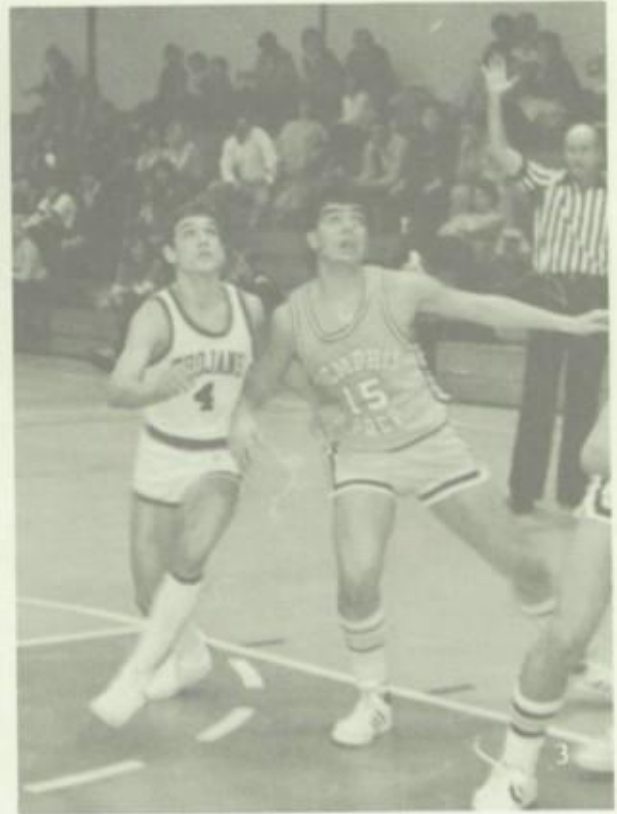

The Varsity Boys Basketball has shown great strides of improvement this year. The Trojans have gone from a 7-20 record and are headed toward a winning season this year. The Trojans, behind Coach Rutland, are united together by a combination of great team spirit, and unity. When not busy with nightly practices the Trojans have as many as three to four games a week. Ricky Sparkman is the teams leading scorer and has shown terrific qualities as senior leader. The Trojans have represented S.B.E.C. in true character. They received the Sportsmanship trophy in the Christmas Holiday Tournament. Good Luck Varsity Trojans!

1) Ricky follows through on the line. 2) Spence shoots for two. 3) Darrell goes in for rebound. 4) Steve goes for the tip. 5) Greg goes high for the shot. 6) Phil warms up for the big game.

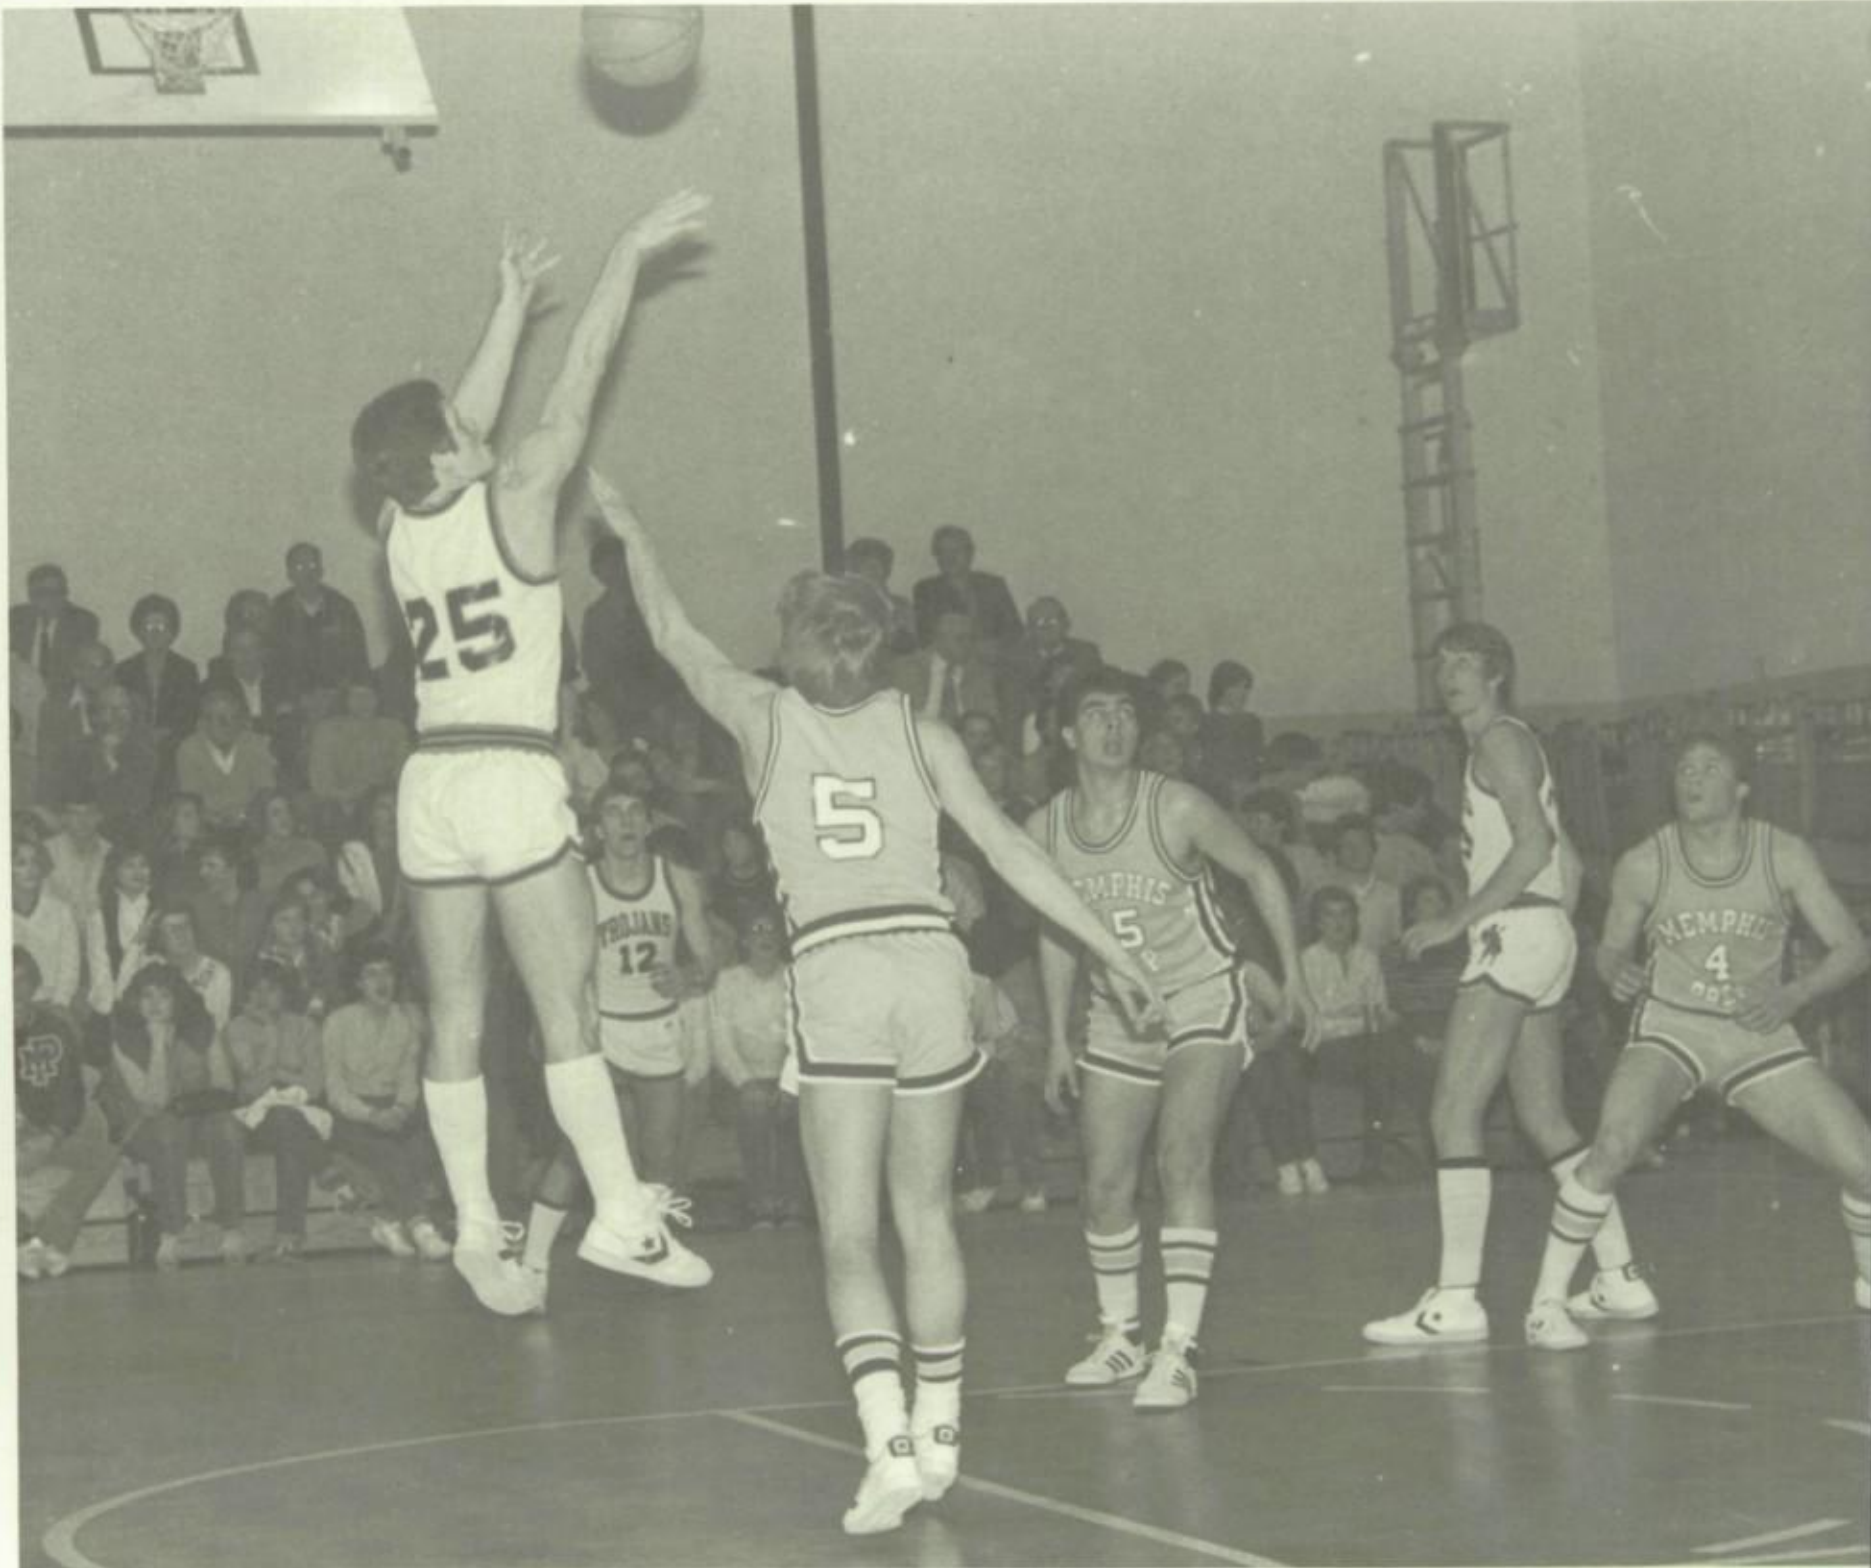

THE TROJAN HOOP

1) Coach Manley and Coach Rutland intensely watch a close game. 2) Phil drives to the bucket. 3) Coach Rutland explains strategy. 4) Spence and Steve warm up. 5) Greg goes up for a jump ball. 6) Ricky practices free throws. 7) Jerry plays tough D. 8) Ricky accepts the team's third place trophy in the Holiday tournament.

1) Spence shoots a jumper from the line. 2) The Trojans at half-time. 3) SBEC enjoys a close victory over rival Prep.

Girls Varsity Basketball

This year's Lady Trojans consist of thirteen girls, four of which are returning lettermen. Although the majority of the team is inexperienced, they are striving to rebuild and improve their basketball talents. The basketball team owes its continued success to the dedication and perseverance of these fine players.

Trojan Strategy At Work

1. The Girls prepare for another win over Memphis Prep. 2. Coach Pop reviews plans during a time-out. 3. Renee Acup, Demitra Hutchison, Kathy Simpson and Tina Terrell watch game earnestly.

1. Paula shoots for two more. 2. Darlene looks for an open pass. 3. Seniors Alana Harbin — manager, JoAllen Muller, Susan Foust, Kathy Simpson, and Regina Hately — manager. 4. Demitra shows her approval of two more points.

Offense Draws A Crowd

1. Darlene goes for a lay-up. 2. Paula shoots for two. 3. JoAllen takes it down the court. 4. Terri Jones dribbles down to set up offense.

Defense Wins The Game

1. Marilyn attempts to block pass. 2. Melanie, Darlene and Susan play hands up defense. 3. Darlene steals the Eagles ball. 4. Cristy blocks the shooter while Paula and Darlene guard the lane.

B-Team Basketball

CAPTAINS

The Varsity Cheerleaders had a tremendous beginning this year. They won the Award of Excellence, the Spirit Award, and the Spirit Stick at an NCA/ACSI Cheerleading camp in Lakeland, Fla. this summer. Stephanie Potts, the Captain, also received the All-American Cheerleader Award. It was quite a boost to the whole school morale. The girls keep busy each week by not only practicing, but by making posters, signs for the team's lockers, planning pep rallies, selling spirit ribbons and trying to squeeze in some study time. There has to be a tremendous commitment on the part of each girl, as it is a time-consuming responsibility, and they have to constantly rely on the Lord for endurance and strength, therefore; it is also a continuous learning experience. This years Captain is Stephanie Potts, and CO-Captain Tammi Needham.

The Ninth Grade Cheerleaders were off to a great year with lots of summer practices including a cook-out at Miss Langley's! Between practices, and early morning meetings, holiday parties and deciding which uniform to wear Sponsor Miss Langley, Captain Kim Gary, and Co-Captain Leigh White kept busy all season long. The cheerleaders supported the Trojans, one-hundred percent because they believe it's worth it to support the best.

7th & 8th GRADE CHEERLEADERS

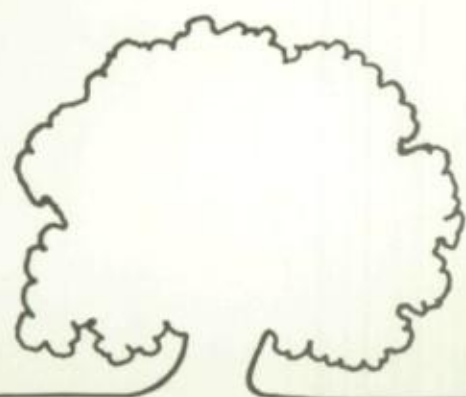

Back Row: Ronda Ray, Kristen Enders, Toni Jordan. Middle Row: Holly Bean, Kay Fennell, Martha Simpson, Kim Young, Joey Eldred. Sitting: Kim Harris — Captain, Stacey Potts — Co-Captain.

The 7th & 8th grade cheerleaders really had a great year. Summer practices and after-school practices have kept us pretty busy, but we believe that all work and no play makes Jill a dull girl. That's why once a month we've had a party in the home of one cheerleader. Our goal for the year has been to glorify the Lord in everything we do and to support the Trojans one hundred percent!

A Day Of Fun And Adventure

Five-year-old kindergarten students are busy learning about school and themselves. Their day includes group time where they talk about their social activities, school responsibilities, and other things in which they are involved. The day also includes work time where they are taught letters and numbers, and play time where they learn to get along with others. These are all popular parts of the day, a day of fun and adventure.

1. Justin Bierbrodt, Shannon Lane, and Daniel Winemiller busily work on creating an octopus. 2. Kindergarten students live a clean life. 3. Cristy Joyner takes a peek. 4. Amy Bowman concentrates as she reads numbers to Mrs. Bishop.

Field Trips Enhance The Sixth Grade

The sixth graders this year took an interesting trip to Huntsville to visit the Space Center. On the way to Huntsville we kept busy by reading, playing, electronic games, and trying to master Rubik's cube. Helen Keller's home was also visited, and we saw the world's largest swimming pool. At the space center we saw Saturn I, Saturn IV, and Miss Baker, the first woman monkey in space. The year also included several other field-trips, to the Pink Palace and the Planetarium. Sixth graders will always remember Mrs. Vaughn and Mrs. Butler, our teachers, and Mrs. Wilkinson, elementary principal, and want to thank them for making our last elementary year the best ever.

GRANDPARENT'S DAY

This year something really neat happened at school. For the first time we had a day when the grandparents came to school to spend a day with their grandchildren. The elementary students presented "This is America," a patriotic program with students dressed in costume representing people and symbols of our American heritage. After the program grandparents returned to the classroom with the students to share what school was like when they were young. Families then grouped together to enjoy a picnic lunch of "grandma's cooking." This was a day of fun, food, fellowship, and a time to honor our grandparents.

"A Certain Small Shepherd"

How would you have liked to have been a small shepherd boy just before the birth of our Savior? Well, that is the program the Elementary school presented. They marched in carrying candles singing of Christmas joy. Once everyone was seated, our story began. Two children played by Elaine Gore and Paul Pollar were talking to their grandfather (Doug Scott) about how Christmas really came about. The grandfather told a story of Josiah, a small shepherd boy, who sees a star and follows it to where the baby Jesus lay. Josiah, upon seeing the baby Jesus, gives his most prized possession — a baby lamb. The grandfather explained to the children that Jesus wants us to give our heart to him. At this point, the Son Rays beautifully sang "Come Into My Heart Lord Jesus" using sign language. Brother Moore led in prayer and the children marched out singing of the joy of Christmas.

An outstanding performance and congratulations go to the elementary and especially to Miss Jackson, Mrs. Jackson, and Mrs. Brown.

1. Mr. Doug Scott begins to tell the Christmas story. 2. "Come Into My Heart Lord Jesus." 3. The director's (Mrs. Jackson) podium. 4. The Kindergarten sings of the joys of Christmas. 5. Brother Moore leads in prayer. 6. Students hold candles in reverence to the Lord when singing. 7. Josiah, Patrick Andre, gives his gift, a lamb. 8. Leah Starns sings about the baby Jesus. 9. Orff players begin the program. 10. Son Rays sing at the end of the play.

CHAPEL

1. Mrs. Wood's class explains the ABC's of God's Love. 2. The Good News Glove was presented by Mrs. Greer's third grade. 3. Brad Moore and Deanna Farris speak during their classes presentation. 4. Students from Mrs. Haye's fifth grade deliver a message of thanksgiving. 5. Mrs. Busby's second grade sings of people around the world in the Christmas program.

1. Mrs. Jackson helps one of her students seal a letter. 2. Chris Bing concentrates on his Bible studies. 3. Fifth graders listen to the reading of God's word. 4. One student listens patiently in Bible. 5. Beth Hill studies in her Bible class. 6. Mrs. Jackson reads a Bible story to one of her classes.

BIBLE

SONRAYS

Mrs. Jackson,
I was sitting in the balcony of Broadway and noticed how sharp the SonRays looked. I wanted to say, like you said last year, they really looked like a "Picture." I thought the sign language was neat and in order.
You're doing a great job with them.
They looked very nice! I know how hard you work!
Jason Ralls
Seventh Grade

1. Mrs. Jackson leads the SonRays as they are accompanied by Mrs. Brown on the piano. 2.
The SonRays practice for an upcoming performance. 3. SonRays exit the gym after a program. 4. The SonRays eagerly await another performance.

MUSIC

Bassons, Fortes, treble clefs, singing—just some of the things Mrs. Brown teaches the elementary students each week. Students gain invaluable knowledge by playing instruments, singing, and watching humorous filmstrips. Music — a great way to begin and end each week.

1. Miss Doty instructs sixth grade band members. 2. Mrs. Brown teaches tempo and beat in music class. 3. Several sixth grade band students practice every day. 4. Mrs. Brown points out musical instrument diagrams.

ART

Elementary art is a place of fun and offers personal satisfaction through creative expression. Students develop their creative abilities through many types of art activities, such as drawing, painting, paper mache', and pottery. Students are encouraged to recognize that being created in the image of God they also have the ability to create.

1. Emily Corbitt and Carla Eldred look at their pictures in the hall. 2. Snowmen made by first graders hang in Mrs. Brown's room. 3. Sixth graders decorate SBEC's Christmas tree in the mall. 4. Erinna Cavin paints in art class.

LIBRARY

The Library is a learning place for elementary students. Mrs. Rogers and her library assistants help students to find and check out books using their new student identification numbers. Fifth and sixth graders are also taught library skills in order to prepare them for junior high school.

1. Mrs. Rogers attentively listens to the question of a fourth grader. 2. Quentin Whitwell is absorbed in a book. 3. Kellie Daughtrey reads attentively. 4. Winners in the library poster contest, Chantal Young, Damon Hutchison, Mindy Perkins, and Bobby Williams, pose in front of their entries.

ACT CLASS

Accent on Creative Thinking, ACT, is a new program implemented in the elementary school. It is a program designed to meet the needs of those students who have been identified through several evaluations as gifted. The program consists of creative activities, thinking skills, independent projects, and mini-units of study. The students publish their own newsletter, Act-ion. The scriptural basis for the program is Luke 12:48, "... For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required ... "

T — Chris Bowman, Quentin Whitwell, Phillip Stroud

Childhood . . .

It is a grinding, dull fantasyland.

The battles in life are strenuous,

Things like "which is my right hand?" or

"Does three come before five, or after two?"

School messes up otherwise good days.

Important things like "Captain Kangaroo" are missed.

Mother makes the beds up without me now,

I am changing.

No longer am I an extension of another,

I have become me.

"Me" will probably change greatly in the future.

Problems will stand in my way,

Difficulties will envelope my life,

But for now . . .

I don't care . . .

I'm just happy being me —

a child whose biggest decision for the time being is whether or not I should let Brian use my favorite yellow crayon.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers
of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season;
his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. Psalms 1:3

Col,
I'm privileged to be the first to sign your annual.
The years we've been here have been great & appreciate you and the way you have always helped me along the way. Thank you for all the help. You have always been one of my favorite teachers. Keep giving all those juniors in line. I'll come back to see ya.

Always
Edd

Coach I pears
It has been fun being in your class these past years.
I think I'm prepared to do some college math now, but I am sure I'll be back for some help. Col, you are my favorite teacher even if you do call me semi-competent.

Rogers
